PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Since Massey opened its doors twenty years ago we have had many fine editions of the Yearbook, and this year is no exception.

Yearbook staffs contribute many hours to produce a book such as we have for our 1980 edition. We appreciate all students who participate in extracurricular activities - especially those who take the initiative, assume responsibility, and execute leadership; this is the backbone of our success and our school spirit at Massey.

Congratulations to all our graduates; and best wishes in whatever future endeavours you may pursue.

D.A. Mallender

VICE PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

During my first year at Massey I cannot praise enough the efforts of the staff and students of this school in creating a very viable educational environment for all of us. I sincerely appreciate the efforts of those teachers who found the "extra" time to give to students who, through their efforts, brought recognition and pride, not only to themselves, but also to the school.

To the graduates, I thank you for your leadership and cooperation throughout the year. I congratulate you on your achievements and wish you continued success.

This edition of Pegasus will afford all of us the opportunity to look back over 1979 - 1980 with a sense of pride, accomplishment and self-esteem.

L.M. Price
Vice Principal

"REACH" TEAM QUESTION

Dear Liz,
 I thought we had lost friends and stayed good to go out and have some more good times. I still do wish though that I still loved across the street because we would have never we are not as good of friends as before. But it had to stay in touch if you do too. Good luck in your future years with whatever you do. Keep on smiling!
 Love your friend,
 Marc.

P.S. Don't forget
 I'm always there
 you need me! (57-06 43)

Love ya!

GROWING

Isn't it funny
How now we laugh
When once we cried?
When a heart was broken
The pieces scattered about
We thought the world was over;
Love would never come
Our way again.
But oh, we were young,
Love reappeared in a day
And magically the pieces
Were glued back together.
How ridiculous we felt,
Crying over someone
We never really knew,
But that was then,
Now we are older
And wiser
But still we see
That we learned
From all the tears,
Fears,
Hopes and dreams
That were never really meant
To affect our lives.
But as tears flowed,
Fears were realized,
And hopes and dreams
Were shattered,
Who would think
That now
We laughed at these silly traumas
Of childhood?
Yet it was important.
For we grew,
As the years flew by,
The tears stopped,
Fears weren't imagined,
And hopes and dreams were Never thought of in such Astronomical proportions
So we laughed.
It didn't heal the pain,
But it lessened it.

FEELING

There are different feelings,
There are some that are appealing.
There are some that are sad and
Some that are not so bad.
There are some which make people cry.
There are some which make people shy.
Feelings aren't played around with,
And feelings are something you will never miss.
For they are always there inside of you.
And there are some that are very new.
After all these years they grew.
And now they all reflect you.

ALONE

Each night in my sleep,
The mists of my mind roll away
To reveal my past.
It is so dark and so real
That I am there again.
Then I would awake suddenly,
Cautious and afraid.
The actual event was obscure,
But the pain and rejection lingered.
Then, I began to build a wall,
And with each recurrence
My wall became higher and thicker.
Soon, it was impenetrable
And I was safe within.
Occasionally, I looked out at the world,
And saw all kinds of people.
Not one of them could be trusted.
I would not be fooled again
By friendly faces.
Later I realized
That I was alone.

INNOCENCE

The day was destined to be different, but it began like any other. In the kitchen of a modest home, a child sat at the table carefully cutting big, red letters from the newspaper. On completion of this task, she went to show her mother these letters. That was the last normal thing that happened that day.

Out of the sky came swelling thunder. The clamour subsided only to be followed by a mass of black projectiles that screamed as they descended. They grew larger and more distinct as they fell, and on contact they exploded into quickly-multiplying flames. Suddenly, it was deadly silent.

In the midst of the clearing smoke, surrounded by desolation, stood the tiny child. At her feet, lay a woman - the woman who had bred her, loved her, cared for her. She lay hopelessly still and in her outstretched hand were the red letters her daughter had given her just moments ago - the letters W.A.R. The child stood there with tear-filled eyes - maybe it was from the smoke, maybe it was from what she knew.

A SLEEPING STORY

Cimmerian darkness at last spoke,
Binding myriad thoughts in its shaded cloak.

Behind its every mystical nocturnal grin,
The long awaited tale now begins,

Coral whispers drift in a silver stream,
Brilliant colours hover in a crystal dream,

Pastal pink tinges on a baby's breath,
Softness floats through a feather nest,

Incandescent white snow shines,
Marbles roll apart in zig - zag lines,

Electrifying ocean waters glisten,
Seabirds soar high above to listen,

Opalescent music playing in tune,
Brisk December air warm like June,

A LITTLE REMINDER

Carelessly floating out to sea,
A little cloud is drifting.
I want to live on that cloud,
I wish that cloud was me.

White and pure as fresh snow,
A little cloud is hovering high above the ground.
I want to be as feather light as that cloud,
I wish that cloud was me.

Smoky and mist coloured,
A little cloud appears mysterious.
I want to be fascinating as that cloud,
I wish that cloud was me.

Gracefully roaming over the land,
A little cloud is gaining ground.
I want to be as free as that cloud,
I wish that cloud was me.

Captured, ripped out of the sky,
A little cloud is helplessly trapped inside a jar.
I want to set that cloud free,
but that little cloud is me.

PRIME MINISTER'S MESSAGE

"Co-operation" is the key to a successful Student Council year. While this is hard to achieve, I feel the successes largely outnumbered the failures. I'm very proud of the achievements of the Student Council members during this the twentieth year of Massey.

Hopefully, the coming years will see the maintenance of Welcome Week, established this past fall. Team efforts such as these help build the bonds of school spirit needed to create a good image of Massey.

Once again, I wish the staff and students and future councils the best of luck.

Best wishes,

David MacKell,
Prime Minister

The REACH FOR THE TOP team of Jeff Hewitt, Dave MacKell, Ron Sorrell and David Dixon made another valiant showing this year as their four-year quest finally came to an end. This was the fourth year on the team for all except Ron, who has spent two years with the team.

This year the group made it once again to the quarter-finals but lost in the clutch to a tough Kennedy team. Thus ended the Massey REACH FOR THE TOP dynasty.

The team would like to thank all of their supporters, old and new, who have stuck with them throughout the years. A special thanks goes to Mr. Crawford for all of his help.

Thank-you and much luck to Massey's future REACH FOR THE TOP teams.

Congratulations on a fine season.

SENIOR GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL

A championship team must have the following elements: talent, a will to win and a sense of sacrifice. The Massey Senior girls' volleyball team had all these elements plus a desire to improve.

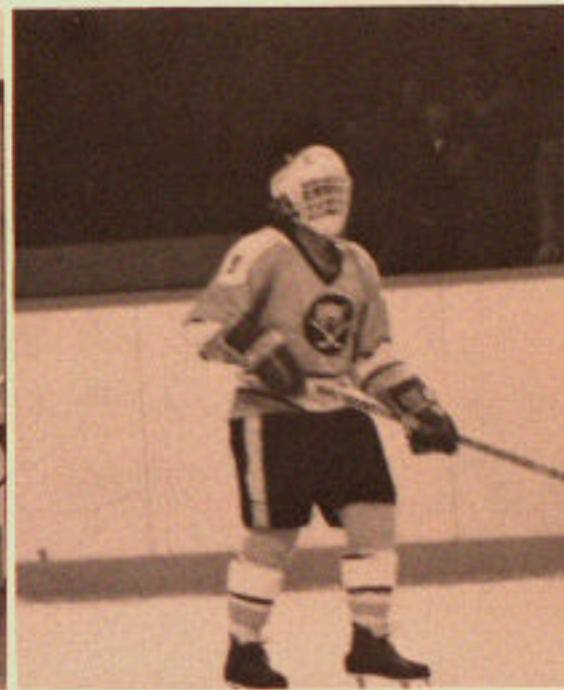

The use of these elements resulted in a city championship, the S.W.O.S.S.A. trophy and finally a fifth place finish in O.F.S.A.A.

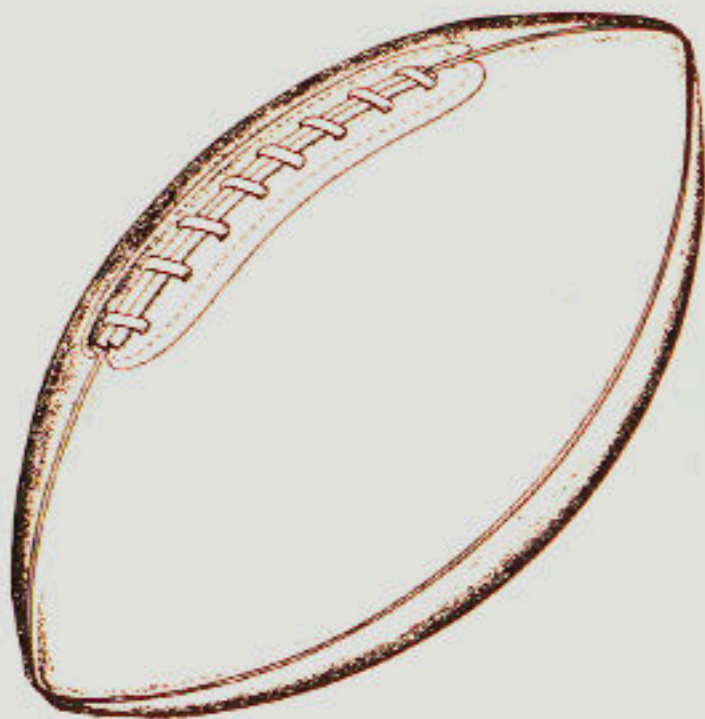

Congratulations to all the team members on a great season!

After two years of fundraising, hardwork and planning, it finally happened!
It was a dream come true for the Vincent Massey Senior Concert Band when they left on April 7, 1980 for a tour of Alberta.

The tour included stops in Banff, Jasper, Hinton, and Edmonton. Nine days in all were spent taking in such sights as Sulphur Mt., Spiral Mt. in British Columbia, Lake Louise, the Icefields and the Athabasca and Sunwapta Falls.

The Band also performed two concerts, one at Jasper Place Composite High School and the other at Hillcrest Junior High in Edmonton.

On behalf of the Vincent Massey Music Executive, I would like to thank the M.B.P.A., the Chaperones and especially Mr. D'Amico for making this trip a great success.

Bob Ebbinghaus
Executive President

JUNE PICK-UP

Get yourself up and dance!
Come on,
Like the wild flowers in the summer breeze,
Like the stars on winter nights when the sky is Cold and clear as ice
Get yourself up!
A new morning
When the seagulls go spiraling
All together in a white tornado,
Dizzy from the sun.
Leave your footprints in the sand,
Shouting,
"I've been here! I've been here! I've been here!"
In sand-script, of course.
Get yourself up and up!
Take a balloon, a yellow one,
Tie your soul onto the string,
And let it go,
Rising to the clouds
Till it looks just like
A period from a yellow felt pen.
Then you are in heaven.

M. Markham

SUMMER GAMES

In the Summer
of our yesterdays
we captured
fat green bugs
in crystal jars
with sealed lids,
we swung into heaven
and back,
and we floated dreamily
in chlorine pools.

the music
of the ice cream man
was the only thing
we answered ...

And in the summer
of our yesterdays
we bought candy
with our new shiny pennies and climbed cloudward
through branched trees
and tried to run
between the raindrops
of a summer shower
or created our own storms
with the sprinklers.

and the music
of the ice cream man
was the only thing
we answered ...

And in the summer
of our yesterdays
we slid down
the viaduct
on cardboard,
skinning our knees
on the stones
at the bottom,
and played mother may I
red light, green light, hide-and-peek.

and the music
of the ice cream man
was the only thing
we answered ...

M. Markham

MASSEY HIGHLIGHTS

Massey's 20th prom was held on April 26th at Windsor's Cleary Auditorium.

The highlight of the evening was the announcement of the prom Queen and King, Anne Meloche and Morgan Wortley respectively. Their court consisted of Janet Mallender, Monica Russell, Laura White, Kim Carter, Jon North and John Lojewski.

"Memories" was chosen as this year's theme.

The Cleary Auditorium was also the setting for Massey's 20th graduation which took place on Saturday, June 21st.

Janet Mallender gave the valedictory address to some 103 Grade 13 graduates and 260 Grade 12 graduates.

Along with Dave MacKell, Janet Mallender was chosen as the 1980 student of the year.

A variety of awards were also given:

EDITORIAL

The yearbook plays a very important role in school spirit. It not only is a review of the past year's activities but also serves as a reminder of one's stay at Massey.

Pegasus is a major project which is not done by one person, but by a conglomeration of people. To all of those who have worked on this year's edition, I would like to give my deepest thanks for their long hours of work and perseverance.

In this, the 20th Anniversary of Pegasus, may I extend my best wishes to all graduating students and to those returning to Massey, continued success!
