Massey Administration 2007-2008

When we receive our yearbooks, it's a time for us to recall special moments—walking the track amidst the luminaries at Relay for Life, receiving awards at the academic award assemblies or the athletic banquet, and dancing at semi-formal or prom are just a few.

As adults, you will share these stories with friends and family, and it is my hope that you will do so with laughter, fondness, and the recognition that Massey provided you with a sense of community, a first-class education, and a love of learning. I know you will be proud of your hard work and academic accomplishments, your athletic and extra-curricular achievements, and the many valuable contributions you've made to our community.

To the graduating class, thank you for letting us be a part of your story. We are proud of you!

I'd also like to thank the parents, teachers, coaches and staff who inspire our students year after year.

Mrs. M. Nantais
Principal

I have been delighted time and again by the maturity and the welcoming nature of the student body at Vincent Massey. I can say now that it has been an honour to serve as a Vice Principal at Vincent Massey Secondary School for 2007-2008 and that I look forward to 2008-2009.

Diversity is one of our strengths here, and I'm humbled to be a part of the vibrant cultural dance that brings our hallways to life each day. At Massey, we may each have our own unique steps, but we're all part of the same performance. Carry the lesson of acceptance and tolerance with you always.

Mr. K. Berard
Vice Principal

"Good-fellowship is more to a person than fire and water. I have seen people stepping into fire and into water, and meeting with tragedy thereby; I have not yet seen a person harmed by planting their steps in the path of good-fellowship."

~ Confucius

More than 2000 years later, Confucius' words still ring true. Throughout my two years as a Vice Principal at Massey I have routinely witnessed good-fellowship. Supportive relationships, between both staff and students, are commonplace. What is most satisfying about these connections is that many of them occur between people of different cultural backgrounds. The students who attend Massey represent more than fifty nationalities, and this school is a fine example of how tolerance and respect for others can be achieved within a diverse population. As you continue through life, remember the importance of establishing relationships with people who don't seem to have much in common with you at first glance; you will often find the opposite is true. I will always remember the paths of good fellowship I travelled at Massey, and I believe they have made me a better person. I wish the best to all of you.

Mr. C. Szpak
Vice Principal

Back to School

For students, Fall is like Spring—a season of new beginnings and fresh starts. September is an exciting month at any school, and Massey is no exception. Returning students crowd the hallways, eagerly catching up with friends and comparing timetables and teachers.

In the first weeks of school yearbooks are delivered, students sign up for clubs, run for student council, and reconnect with their school lives.

Welcome back, Massey!

Our Community

Massey students and teachers participate in many activities that help to enrich our community.

Whether they're adopting part of Liberty Street, planting trees or collecting litter with Massey Green, or petitioning to save their local woodlot with Friends of Oakwood Bush, Massey students work to improve the local environment.

Dozens of units of blood from Massey staff and students help save the lives of those in need in the local community thanks to our regular blood drives.

Terry Fox Run

On Friday, October 19, 2007, Massey students and staff commemorated one of Canada's greatest modern day leaders: Terry Fox. Guided by Mrs. Patterson, the Grade 12 Leadership Class organized and ran a memorable Terry Fox Run. All funds raised went to support cancer research.

All Night Dance

On Friday, November 16, 2007, students and teachers camped out at Massey during the annual All Night Dance. The event featured games, tournaments, swimming, and movies to keep the participants awake and busy, not to mention the dance itself.

Generous contributions from the community and eager student volunteers helped make this year a success. The $9000 raised from the event went to support Massey's annual Underprivileged Children's Christmas Party (UCCP).

UCCP

On Saturday, December 15, 2007, a group of students and teachers from Massey spent their Saturday at school running the annual Underprivileged Children's Christmas Party. This year, around 350 elementary school students from JK to Grade 3 came to Massey to enjoy a day of activities, including games and songs prepared by our students. The children were also treated to a scrumptious lunch and a surprise visit from Santa Claus.

Fashion Show

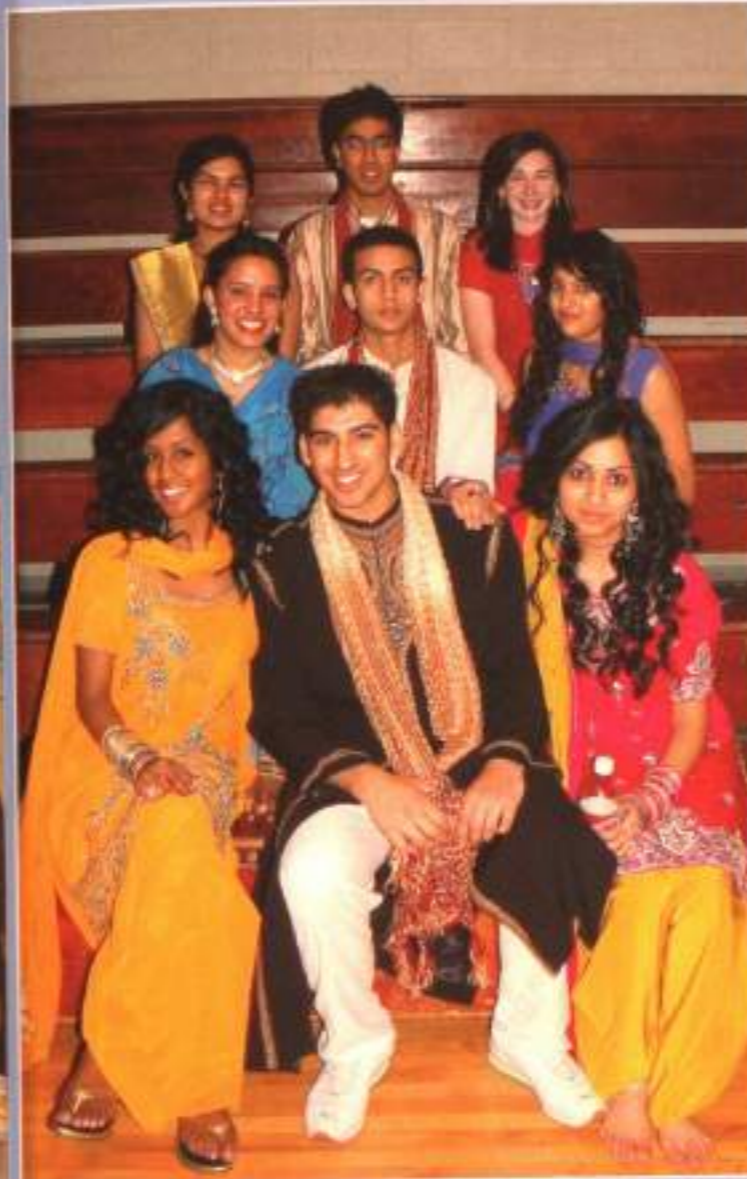

This year's annual fashion show, "A Little Bit Country, A Little Bit Rock and Roll," took place on Thursday, May 8th and Friday, May 9th. Produced by Miss Adams and Mr. Narison, contributors to the amazing performances included models, dancers, commentators (Merry Donison and Sofia Tesich), set design, and lighting and sound teams. As always, this was a charitable event to benefit the Friends of Oakwood Bush.

Multicultural Dinner

On Monday, November 26, 2007, students, teachers and members of the community gathered in Massey's very own cafeteria to feast on delicacies from across the world at the 18th Multicultural Dinner. Cultural dishes included treats from 17 different countries representing Asia, Europe, North America and Africa. All proceeds went to UNICEF, Goodfellows, and the Downtown Mission.

Multicultural Show

On Tuesday, February 28, 2008, the Multicultural Council of Massey once again pulled off one of the most spectacular events of the year—the multicultural show.

This year's show focused on the theme of royalty. It was an entertaining night of performances by students representing cultures from across the world. The storyline that strung together the series of dances was narrated by commentators Danielle Fan, Corey Vednoriz and Nikki Moshiri.

Coffee House

The Massey cafeteria is more than just a place to eat your lunch. On the last Thursday of every month, the caf comes alive with the music, comedy, dramatic performances, and poetry readings by Massey's most creative and talented students. Stop by for a coffee, dessert, and great entertainment. Your classmates' secret talents might really surprise you.

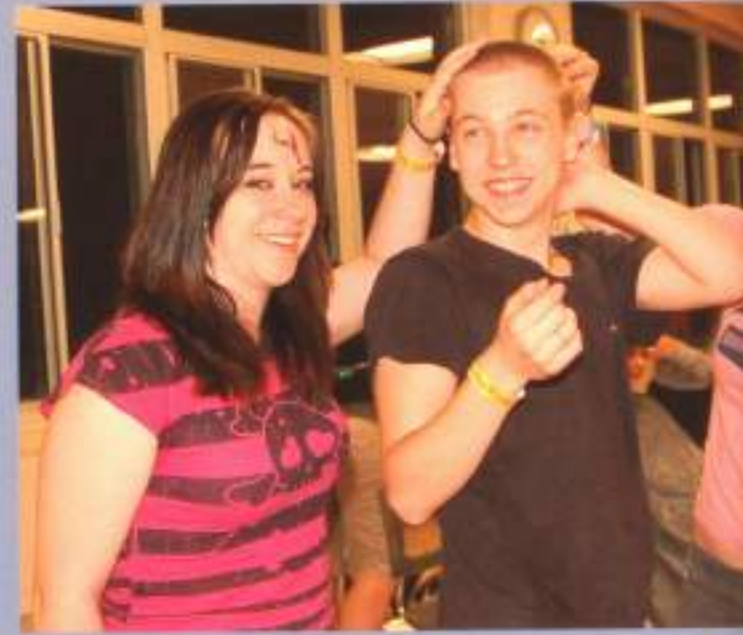

Hallowe'en

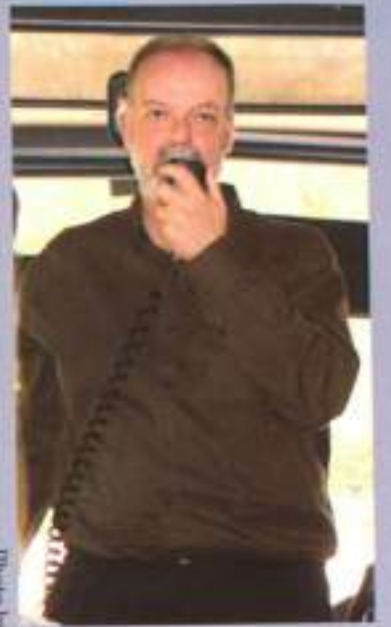

Relay for Life

For a third consecutive year, Massey was host to a Relay for Life event for the Canadian Cancer Society. Students, teachers and members of the community came together to raise over $23000 to help support the fight against cancer. Participants walked the track, lit luminaries, and enjoyed various entertainment at the all-night event.

School Trips

Massey students explored the world in 2008. The major excursions included the band's trip to New York City to compete in the New York Festivals of Music, the Social Science department's "Magical History Tour" to France, a half marathon at Disney World, and the French Department's annual trek to St. Donat, Quebec. Closer to home our students explored Point Pelee, The Pinery and Stratford.

In Memoriam

Daniel J. Bonk

1950-2008

"So it goes."

- Kurt Vonnegut, Slaughterhouse Five

As the sun rose on 2008, it set on an era at Massey. Dan Bonk, the charismatic head of the English department for nearly a decade, passed away on January 1. To quote Slaughterhouse Five, a novel by one of his favourite writers, "So it goes."

The following weeks saw an outpouring of emotion for a man who had touched the lives of hundreds of students and colleagues over 30 years as an educator. Those who knew him congregated, reminisced, shared songs, and wrote.

"Signing his desk and glancing at the other notes, I couldn't help but imagine Mr. Bonk wearing a Ralph Lauren Classic Fit Oxford, black corduroy pants, and those shoes he never wore socks with," Paula Linte shared. "While slowly taking off his Ray Bans, he'd glance down and smile discretely. 'Isn't that neat?' I can hear him say."

"Mr. Bonk was a unique teacher, to say the least," agreed Alex Spirou. "I remember laughing -to the point of tears some days- in his English class. He made English everyone's favourite class of the day."

Sindhura Jamalapur was more direct. "I first met Mr. Bonk when I was in grade 10. That was one of my best years of high school and he was definitely one of the reasons it was so."

Mr. Bonk was more than a teacher. He was a performer, an inspiration, and, to many students, a friend. He had a way of reaching students, even if literature or writing wasn't their only common ground. Jesse Bauer remembers bonding with Mr. Bonk over baseball. The sport "has this incredible ability to unite wingnuts and oddballs everywhere," he mused. "Mr. Bonk and I were just a couple of these oddballs, drawn together by the beauty of this game... we had this marvelous connection that brought us through the nearly five years of my high school career as the closest of friends."

Devon Pastorius reminded us to "mourn, but also celebrate a life well lived. He was a special person, who touched the lives of many, and in such positive ways. May we never forget, and may we always remember Mr. Bonk." And so it goes.

Long gowns and blue caps were the popular look on graduation day at the Ciccara Club on Monday, June 23. After the speeches were made and the diplomas were handed out the grads ended the night with a slideshow that brought high school memories flooding back. Good job to all our graduating Mustangs, you made it!

"We are leaving with fond memories, lifelong friendships, ridiculous stories and the knowledge that we've endured the great adventure that is Massey."

- COREY YEDNOROZ

Sports Action

Outstanding Athletes

Massey may be known primarily as an academic school, but athletics are an important part of our vibrant school culture as well.

Massey sports start in the very first week of September, before most students have even resigned themselves to accept the end of summer, with football and tennis try-outs. The season doesn't really wind down until the athletic awards banquet after OFSAA track has been completed in June.

For ten months of the year students and coaches are in our gyms or on the back field working to improve their skills and compete the best they can. Some of their greatest successes are remembered in the pictures and captions on these pages, but there were other Massey successes as well: the boys baseball team compiled an impressive 9-1 regular season record before losing a tough playoff game in the second round; the junior girls basketball team made it to the WECSSAA semi-finals and one of the junior girls, Elena Alecu, was named league MVP; unranked boys singles tennis player Sunny Lin placed first in the Veres Division at WECSSAA; and the track team was again first overall at WECSSAA.

Below - Mixed doubles partners Rebecca Zhang and Patrick Ng qualified for the OFSAA badminton tournament. As a team, the Stangs took gold at WSSA.

Right - Both the junior and senior girls volleyball teams made the city final for the first time in years. Pictured is Gadeer Sobh.

THE CLUB SCENE

At Massey we have an active and diverse assortment of clubs for students. Massey clubs range from social clubs that congregate to play games or ping pong, to community service groups that help to clean up the local environment and raise awareness of global issues. All of them provide activities that enrich the high school experience and provide social and learning opportunities beyond the classroom.

A few of our clubs, however, have been recognized, in competition or by outside groups, for their outstanding achievement.

REACH FOR THE TOP!
The reach for the top team was tops in Essex County and placed fourth in the provincial tournament making it to the televised round.

YORK SCIENCE OLYMPICS
The Massey Science Olympics Team seized first place at the York Science Olympics.

SAVE THE ENVIRONMENT
The Massey Green Team's stewardship shone through this year. They were awarded with the Canadian Geographic Award for their many environmental cleanups and tree-planting initiatives.

THE BOAT RACES
The Physics Club at Massey sent two teams of students to the London Cardboard Boat Race. Using their impressive knowledge of physics principles, they won third at the Regional Competition and advanced to the Provincial Level.

TRIP BAND

The Massey Trip Band performed well enough to take First Place at the New York Festivals of Music in May.

ROBOTICS

The robotics team worked hard all year building and preparing their robot for competition.

MASSEY SCIENCE OLYMPICS

The Science Olympiad Club organized its very own Science Olympics for the first time in history for both elementary school students and junior mustangs.

COMPUTER SCIENCE

Members of the computer science club had a successful year including a first place win at the CCC for Peter Wen and Tom Symanski will go on to compete in Egypt in the IOI Computer Science Olympics.

WORLD AFFAIRS

The World Affairs Club worked tirelessly this year to raise awareness and help people in need. One of their initiatives was a holiday food drive, which collected hundreds of non-perishable food items for those in need in our community.

Massey Math

Massey has a national reputation as an excellent school for Mathematics. This year's group of Math students and contest writers made certain that our reputation continued unabated.

Our math students continued their dominance in contests this year. Jason Fan and Peter Wen did so well they were asked to participate in the University of Waterloo Math Seminars, while Heinrich Jiang, Aurick Qiao and James Duyck have been invited to the National Math Camp, exclusively offered to the top twenty grade nines and tens in Canada.

CONTEST PARTICIPANTS

Pascal

The 2008 Pascal was written by 34017 grade 9 students from 1289 schools across Canada. Massey finished first for the 13th year in a row in Essex and Kent Counties while finishing 5th in Ontario and 6th in Canada. Leading the team were Heinrich Jiang and Fan Yin who were tied for 1st in Canada with a perfect score of 150.

Cayley

26398 grade 10 students from 1226 schools across Canada wrote the Cayley this year. 79 students from Massey wrote the contest and 41 placed in the top 25% in Canada. Massey has finished first in the Essex-Kent region for 18 consecutive years, and this year we finished 4th in Ontario and 6th in Canada. Aurick Qiao led the team with an 11th in Canada and James Duyck followed closely at 34th.

Fermat

For the twelfth year in a row, Massey finished with the best score in Essex and Kent counties. We were also first in Ontario and fourth in Canada out of 1212 schools. Frank Ban and Peter Wen tied for tenth in the nation out of 22479 students, and Jason Fan finished 60th.

Euclid

121 Massey Students wrote the Euclid and 78 were in the top 25% of the 16108 Canadian participants. Massey's Euclid Team finished first in Southwestern Ontario for the twentieth year in a row and finished fifth out of 600 schools in Ontario and ninth out of 1183 schools across Canada.

Outstanding Individual Performances

James Duyck had Massey's highest score on the Euclid and was invited to the National Math Camp and the Russian Math Research Conference.

Fan Yin and Heinrich Jiang placed first in Canada on the Pascal.

Corey Yednoroz (pictured) and Yifan Li were awarded the Jessica Yin Lei Memorial Scholarship for their commitment to Massey Math.

Mr. Ing, shown with nominees Yifan Li, Frank Ban, and James Duck, received the Edyth May Sliffe Award. The award recognizes the top twenty math teachers in North America.

Good-bye

Mr. Caldwell and Mr. Fougere

Two of Massey's most beloved teachers retired this year after long and influential careers.

GRUOCH

When asked what she would remember most about Mr. Caldwell's teaching, Helen Duzhou replied "Gruch." Mr. Caldwell used that guttural utterance to approximate the Scottish pronunciation of Lady Macbeth's name for her English class. "Roll your tongue vigorously," he instructed, "you can't wuss out on this name."

MORE THAN MATH

Mr. Caldwell is a wonderful math teacher, but most of the things the students remember aren't about math at all. "He taught us about more than just math," explains Jason Lei. "He taught us about life."

MELODIOUS

Yifan Li fondly recalls Mr. Caldwell's soothing speaking voice. "His voice is so dulcet and melodious... it can be very relaxing."

LONGEVITY

For 37 years Mr. Caldwell helped generations of Massey students learn and appreciate mathematics.

ATHLETIC

During soccer season one could find Mr. Caldwell out on the pitch. He coached girls and boys over the course of his career, and even as he aged, he never had trouble keeping up with his players.

HUMOUR

Mr. Fougere's students will always remember his unflappable sense of humour. Nobody ever quite knew when he was serious or joking. His classes were certainly anything but dull.

Mr. Fougere's class was always entertaining and unpredictable. One minute he could be dissecting a fetal pig, and the next he might be performing CPR on a potato plant.

THE GREAT OUTDOORS

Many Massey students, through the Friends of Oakwood Bush camping trip, learned about the great outdoors from Mr. Fougere, who is a dedicated outdoorsman.

EFFICIENT

Mr. Fougere's efficiency on parent-teacher interview night is legendary. If he wasn't retiring he would be able to show your children your grade 10 exam mark some day!

UNIQUE

Mr. Fougere's creativity knows no bounds. Whether he was organizing an O Canada sing-off between Mr. Lutz's homeroom class and his own, or selling seaweed crisps at a bake sale, he was always doing something unique around the school.

INSPIRING

Mr. Fougere and Mr. Caldwell are, above all, inspiring teachers. Their engaging and unique personalities, though different, compliment their equally enthusiastic teaching styles.

Top 10 Moments

Massey is school where there is always something going on, whether it be rehearsals for the school play or students gearing up for one of our many trivia nights. That's what happens when you bring 1400 of our talented Mustangs together at Massey.

Because there are so many events happening at our beloved school all throughout the year, you have probably missed at least one of the following moments. If not, you are definitely way too dedicated to this school, so use this page as a refresher for your memory. For the rest of you, these are the Top 10 Moments of the 2007-2008 school year that didn't get their own pages. These are the memories that we will never forget. Enjoy!

1 O-CANADA COMPETITION

Mr. Lutz's and Mr. Frazier's classes went head to head in the O-Canada Singing Competition. The fierce battle ended in another win for Mr. Lutz's class!

JEOPARDY!

The school wide jeopardy tournament ended with a showdown between the junior, senior and teacher champions.

CATAPULT LAUNCH

Mr. Baglivo's College Physics class built and launched their impressive catapults on the snowy back field. The best shot went just over 115 m!

GINGERBREAD CONTEST

In the weeks before Winter Break, homeroom classes had the chance to build their very own gingerbread houses. Students not only had fun building the tasty structures, but devouring them as well!

5 X-MAS ASSEMBLY

During Student Council's Christmas Assembly, Santa found his true love on the Santa Baby Gameshow Event!

6 GUITAR HERO

Think you're great at Guitar Hero? Think again! These kids have mastered the art of the game and were not afraid to show off their skill at Massey's First Annual Guitar Hero Competition.

TRIVIA NIGHTS

Know the capital of every obscure country in the world? This team probably does. The winners of the final trivia night of the year were Jackie Sun, James Vander Voort, Corey Yednoroz and his dad, Mr. Yednoroz.

8 CAMPING TRIP

This year, members of the Friends of Oakwood Bush club set out in the Pinery for their annual camping trip. The weekend was packed with canoeing, hiking, and fighting off those ferocious squirrels.

9 THE TWINS

The Twins, a comedy by the ancient Roman playwright Plautus, was the selection for this year's school play. The production ran May 30 and 31 and featured an evening performance to benefit Relay for Life.

ATHLETIC AWARDS BANQUET

The annual athletic awards banquet was held at the Caboto Club in June. It was a memorable event that recognized the achievements of many of our Mustangs. Way to go!

Goodbye

Outtakes

If you've ever wondered what happens with all those "extra" photos the yearbook staff takes...here you go!

Pegasus Editors 2008

Well, Massey, this is it—your 2008 yearbook has arrived. Since last September, our photographers have caught many of you Mustangs at pep rallies, on trips, in the stands at sports events, and just about anywhere else you could imagine.

2008 was a significant year in Massey's history. We welcomed many new faces, and said goodbye to some legends. We won some, we lost some, and every day seemed to bring forth a new challenge. The students and staff went through so much this year, and together, we pulled through it all.

Some of you will leave soon to attend college or university, or to enter the workplace. (Don't worry, a new class of niners will flood the school again in September and the routine will start all over again.)

Years from now you'll be a lot older and maybe your memory won't be as great it once was. We hope you'll have your trusty yearbook by your side to remember all the great things that you were a part of in your high school days. Good luck to everyone, wherever the future may find you. It's been fun, and we hope you enjoy the book.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Kwan, Nothando Swart, Lyndon Lyons, Ashley Paddon, Alex Wachna, Mr. Trudell, and Ms. Demeter

WORKING

The art of yearbook is a skill that has been mastered over the last year by these two editors Nothando Swart and Jennifer Kwan.

RELAXING

What do hardworking yearbook editors do on their coffee break? Ping pong of course. Here's editor Lyndon Lyons showing off his swing.

THE PHOTOGIRL

Ashley Paddon: photographer extraordinaire. Ready at a moment's notice, she brings her camera everywhere and is not afraid to take a tonne of pictures. She's been devoted to the yearbook cause for three long years.

THE PHOTOGUY
Lurking in the shadows, Alex Wachna, shown here, is taking a snapshot of an important pep rally event.
