It is amazing how rapidly days pass into months and months into years. It seems that only yesterday it was September. How valued will be this yearbook in days to come for from it we will recall the many happy moments that we have spent as a Tartan.

How great a part of your daily lives has become your time at Walkerville. The association with your friends, your teachers, and your involvement with our activities will remain with us forever. Walkerville has been your place to grow, to develop the necessary fundamentals that you will utilize as you enter your adult lives, a place that you shall remember, and recall as you thumb through the pages of the Blue and White.

May I take this opportunity to thank the students for the enjoyable daily involvement that you have given, the enthusiasm that you project and the feeling of security that you impart to us and others. To our graduates: Good luck, may your future be bright and promising.

To the staff of the Blue and White a thank you for keeping our memories alive.
A. Aitken

OUR PRINCIPAL'S "VICE"

This has been an exceptionally fine year in the distinguished, fifty-four-year-old history of Walkerville.

Congratulations are in order to the student body and teaching staff for their contributions to the overall quality of classroom and extra-curricular endeavours.

The pages of this "Blue and White" publication reflect the myriad activities associated with Tartan school life. Accolades of the first order are extended to Mrs. Pac-Urar and her fine array of student workers who laboured so arduously to produce this excellent yearbook.

WALKERVILLE HONOUR SOCIETY

To become a full-fledged member of our Honour Society, a student must earn a minimum of 100 points, with a restricted maximum from at least three of the four categories: academic, athletic, school clubs and service. For this achievement, a student receives a gold medallion and an Honour Society Crest.

To qualify for the Honour Society Ring, a student must earn an additional 75 points, making a total of 175 points.

To gain the highest and most challenging Honour Society Award, a student must show continued involvement and dedication and must earn a total of 250 points. For this outstanding achievement, the member will receive an individual trophy and the honour of having a photograph displayed in the school library. Before the end of the school year, at least three of our members will have qualified for this much-coveted award.

Our congratulations go to the following Honour Society members for their valued contribution to the success of our school:

THE BLUE AND WHITE
Words by Lillian F. Bull

Three cheers to thee, beloved school,
Collegiate we so revere,
To all the world thy praise we'll tell,
Of thy virtues all will hear.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

Chorus
Collegiate of our hearts,
A song to thee we'll raise.
Our Alma Mater dear
We'll shout afar thy praise
Colours of Blue and White,
We'll keep thy standards high.
Collegiate of our hearts,
We'll love thee 'til we die.

In basketball, on soccer fields,
Debating and all the rest;
In sports and academic work
You rank among the very best.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

Fond memories and thoughts of thee,
Shall e'er in our hearts abide.
Dear Walkerville thy name shall we Cherish with abundant pride.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

I think I passed
 At least I tried
 But even so
 My brain is fried
 My brain is just
 A clueless mess
 Mr. Zawadski
 Who was Hess?
 $6 \times 10^{23}$
 Is this what they mean
 By enthalpy?
 I am clueless
 On the whole
 Mr. Zawadski
 What's a mole?
 Do not know
 If hair school's my fate
 Seeing I don't know
 Molecular weight.
 Hard to say
 What I might do
 If I flunk
 If you think
 This poem is bad
 You should see
 What you might have had!

I have profited greatly from this, my last year at Walkerville. Many doors were opened instantly before me, doors that I could never seem to open before. I met many new friends and strengthened old friendships this year. The year would not have been the same without the unique personalities I have come across throughout my five years at Walkerville. I sincerely appreciate your support and friendship throughout the years; and I will always remember the spirit and great determination of all the students that have kept the school on its feet. We must always remember a school is only a building; it is the students within the school that give the school life and spirit.

Lucio Gelmini
Vice-President
1978-79 Agora

All through the year I was trying to sum up my total thoughts for this school of ours. We had a lot of good times and bad times, but we all had fun. The late night stays were pretty rough as Gord and Lucio knows, but we managed. Our CAGE Radio Station finally got off the ground after miles of red tape. Thanks to Rick for moving some of that red tape. For those people who thought the Agora didn't do anything, I will list just some of our accomplishments: CAGE Radio Station, activity nights, assemblies, a new P.A. System. We also financially helped the following organizations: Blue and White Yearbook, the SAC, cheerleaders, UN Club and more. These are just a few of our services to the school.

One thing that surprised me was the number of talented people who performed in our Talent Assemblies. I hope that these people keep on working at improving their special talents so that they will benefit from these.

I cannot express my thanks to all the people who gave so much of their time to the Agora. Without the Agora supervisors and the head office the Agora would not have functioned. For all of these, I thank you.

This is also my last year so I am also going to say good-bye and good luck.

Many thanks and apologies,
Carl Bertola
President
1978-79 Agora

BLUE AND WHITE BLUE AND WHITE BLUE AND

Last year, after working on the yearbook as one of about five staff members, I was asked to edit this year's book. It was a big challenge. I have enjoyed working with old friends and making new friends.

Grateful thanks are extended to all those people who contributed to this book in some way.

Special thanks go to several very dedicated people who helped me VERY much in the last few days before the final deadline. Jane Cornett, Robin Casey, Barb Zalucki, Gabriella Toth, Tom Bauer, Ken Malec, Marlene Mahler, Dorothy Nielsen and Anne Cascadden did an excellent job.

Roberta Gilchrist surmounted all odds to get printed the pictures which grace these pages. She even stood on the corner of Ouellette and Riverside in freezing weather with no coat on and a camera around her neck just to buy a thumb-sized light bulb. Rick Churchill and Dave Cornett did an excellent job in helping with the final organization and Julie Bell has to be commended for her excellent art work.

I would be remiss if I do not thank Mr. Roach for his patience. I was on time for roll call maybe one class a month for the entire year.

Mrs. Pac-Urar. What can be said? Your help and guidance was greatly appreciated by the entire staff. Thanks for this great opportunity.

The Student Music Association was created three years ago with the aim of planning concerts and organizing fund-raising activities, not only to benefit the students involved in the music program but to benefit all the students at Walkerville. By coming to our concerts we were able to provide a variety of music performed by the Senior Band, Stage Band, String Ensemble and Baroque Chamber Ensemble. And by supporting us in our bake sales, carwashes and skatathon, The Senior Band and String Ensemble were able to play at different schools in Windsor as well other cities, such as our trip to Burlington, and meet other students, having the same basic interests in music.

The responsibility of being president of such a large organization has been a great experience as well as a lot of fun. I would like to thank Mr. Curry in particular for always the time and the patience to help us solve the numerous problems involved and for always backing me up when I needed it the most. I doubt if there is any one teacher that is as dedicated, considerate or reliable as our Mr. Curry. This year has been very memorable for me and I would like to thank all my fellow students and friends and thank-you Janice Smith for making my job a little bit easier and a lot more fun. As for my S.M.A. Executive, I will never forget the consideration and co-operation that I received throughout the year. As for me and many other students, this year was the year for music.

"Coming together is beginning,
 Keeping together is progress,
 Working together is success."

We came together in September and were a success in April, and in between we worked and had fun. The going was slow for a while, but keeping together was our key to success and it unlocked many doors. The friendships and memories that are left after the last curtain falls are as priceless as the moments when they happen.

Mr. Curry has a way of bringing out the best in people. Susan Marsh's and Donna Hennessey's dancing talents were apparent in the choreography. Rolf Beutler and Rich Churchill gave their all for the set design and backstage. The leads were better than great, and it showed. Tim Koloff and Ray Swanson made a perfect pair of innocent young lads on their way to a new world of glitter. Dorothy Nielsen and Marlene Mahler were the only two suitable ladies to share in their new discoveries.

And there's the horse. From the first scene Rose and Karen trotted into the hearts of the audience. Their cute gestures and life-like expressions made for a spectacular show and were, no doubt, the highlight of the show. If only these two could have been seen.

With contributions of time, effort and selflessness "Hello Dolly" came to be one of the best shows that Walkerville has presented. Thank you Walkerville for another brilliant, bubbling, Tarten Players' production.

And then there's Julie Clarke, surpassing all limits. She attended all practices of orchestra and front stage and still on closing night had as much enthusiasm as she had at our first practice. Above top: Her prime time and above bottom: Her work time. Thank you Julie for your time, enthusiasm and patience. Jane Wilkinson did an excellent job filling in for Julie and made our practices successful.

CLOSE ONLY COUNTS IN HORSESHOES & HANDGRENADES

As the scores indicate, the Senior Girls' Basketball team had several close contentions during the '79 season. Unfortunately though, the team came out on the short end of the stick in the majority of their games.

The season opened with a smashing start with a fine performance in the University of Windsor tournament. By beating Assumption, Brennan and General Amherst. Some of the finest teams, the Walkerville girls took the Championship.

Most of the team is returning next year though and with the same dedication and hard work as was portrayed this year they're predicting a very successful season.

GOOD LUCK!!!

Mary Friedl, Stuart Cameron, Mike Courteney, Doris Carr, Pete Oksanen, Wendy Van Alphen, Alan Rush, Sandra Moore, Liz Van Alphen, Mr. Turner, Janet Root.

Our Cross country team had a terrific year. Although none of the teams won a championship, we stood fairly well. All the teams made it to the S.W.O.S.S.A. meet with the result that two people would continue on to the O.F.F.S.A. meet; Janet Root and Stuart Cameron made a terrific effort and it showed in their standings.

BEHIND EVERY SUCCESSFUL TEAM

THERE'S A GOOD COACH

Our coaches are the greatest. What with rising at unearthly hours to coach a swim team, or staying till the sun sets, setting with the football team, it's a wonder they could stay sane. How many of you could transform a motley group of students into a professional looking, professional playing team? Our coaches tried, and they succeeded.

Special thanks go to: Mrs. Stephenson-Synchro; Mr. Halper-Soccer; Mr. Kuszowski-Hockey; Mr. Giles-Badminton; Mrs. Krenz-Girls' Volleyball; Mr. Rumble-Football; Mr. Swierenga-Boys' Volleyball; Mr. Stomp, Mr. Turner, Miss Parkinson, Miss Brown, Mr. Nanson, Mr. Mercer, Mr. MacLeod, and any other coach who has been left out.

THANKS FOR A JOB WELL DONE!!

MEMOIRS

She sits rock, rock, rocking,
As lonely as can be,
And sits talk, talk, talking,
To anyone she sees.

"I remember my youth, my spring time,
Such a glorious time and free,
I loved to go dance, dance, dancing,
And knew not what pain could be.

My lover he came a-courting,
So handsome and tall was he,
And we would go walk, walk, walking,
Along the sands by the sea.

In the summer we were married,
Soon our children numbered three,
We spent the years laugh, laugh, laughing,
Never caring what was to be.

We laboured to raise our family,
We struggled through hardship and strife,
Our children were bloom, bloom, blooming,
We were contented and happy with life.

But my husband he died one drear
autumn,
He left me alone and bereft,
I spent my days cry, cry, crying,
His death I could not accept.

Winter is now upon me,
My children have grown and departed,
I sit here just watch, watch, watching,
For springtime, when will it be started."

She sits rock, rock, rocking,
As lonely as can be,
And sits talk, talk, talking,
To anyone she sees.

LAMENT OF A FOOL

Hello there fool,
I look at you,
You look at me,
But don't we know there is no more for us to see.
We saw the sights, we heard the news,
we smiled,
We laughed and now it's time to flee.
To flee, to part, to leave for now and ever
Goodness fool we are so clever.
For where are the friends we needed, yet never came?
Where is the help we pleaded, yet never heard?
Can we be so dense not to see?
There is no room for you and me.

— Anne Nlec —

FATHERLESS CHILD

A mother called her little girl,
To put away her toys.
"It's time to go to bed my dear,
Like other girls and boys."
The little girl soon thought to pray, before she went to bed.
That night she said a special prayer;
This is what she said:
Please dear God, forgive me, for I may be doing wrong;
But it's been such a long time God,
Since my daddy has been home.
I could ask my mommy, but it only makes her sad;
For the tears always fill my mommy's eyes when I speak of my dad.
He's taught me all the prayers I know;
Which I say to you each night . . .
So he couldn't be such a bad man, God,
So please send him home to me tonight.

THE GREED

They wait, and they wait, and they wait. They know what they're going to get. A note of hope is revealed, but is it the real hope they're all waiting for? Wealthy, old, gracious grandfather knows he awaits death door, but has a task to conclude, for these, so called, humans that are so rude! Four of them; mother, father, son and daughter, awaiting their tasteless glass of water. He now tells them to put on their masks, hoping faith will carry out its tasks. They receive it all:
money, property, everything they've ever needed. But grandfather's task has not yet been completed. He now tells them that they've done their duty, and now to take off their masks of truth. One minute later, which seemed like hours, grandfather died and had a funeral with no flowers. You're all confused — why no flowers? Well, although grandfather died with peace and honour, mother, father, son and daughter have all been poisoned by their glass of water.

WRITING

ABUSE

With a frown on his face;
And scars on his cheeks.
He hides up the marks;
That would stay for weeks.

He has nothing to live for;
He lives a life of dread.
He lives with his parents;
He wishes they were dead.

He dreams of happy mirages;
For there are no other worthwhile sights.
He lives in hell and turmoil;
Forever in family fights.

He is frightened of dark corners;
In case a hand comes out.
Belts him across the face;
And thrashes him all about.

He runs away for his reasons;
Life is so harsh on him.
There lies nothing good before him;
His future seems so grim.

His mind then becomes blank;
He stares at nothing in space.
You can see the paralyzing terror;
Written all over his face.

He had to get away;
This life would degrade his brain.
He'd find other people to live with;
And abolish that childhood pain.

— Wendy Thoms —

You are a beautiful child,
growing up free and wild.
Full of hopes and full of fears,
echoing laughter, shedding tears.

But you are trapped in society's cage;
play the role; act your age.
Always searching for a better way,
trapped in tomorrows and yesterdays.

Don't they understand?
can't they see?
I'm finding myself,
I want to be me.

— Donna Fraser —

MEAN JOE GREEN

He was six foot eight,
weighing 300 pounds.
With shoulders like a crate,
his arms could move mounds.

He came from a town
where they dug in the rocks
For the dark black coal that paid them their bucks.

They gave him a scholarship to get him out of that place
So he could be known to this whole human race.

They gave him a uniform
and asked him his name
"I'm Mean Joe Green,"
he started to explain.

"What position," he replied,
"would you like to play,
On this football team,
this very day?"

"I'll play Defensive Tackle,"
he said with a growl.
"Well get out there and play,"
the coach said with a scowl.

Mean Joe Green
played with all his might.
He was so strong
nobody would ever start a fight.

He tackled the quarterback,
then tackled him again.
He wouldn't stop moving
'till the play was at the end.

They won fifty games
'till that fatal day
When Mean Joe Green
passed away.

It was during a game,
the final of the season,
When Joe was hit from behind for no known reason.

Everyone watched
as he flew through the air.
He hit the ground with a crunch!
and nobody cared.

— Jean-Guy Brunet —

TO FALL OR NOT TO FALL

For a leaf to fall off every day,
Another leaf will grow,
But not until the springtime comes,
Then the trees will overflow.

Instead of yellow, brown or red,
This colour will be green.
This colour is so ordinary,
It's hardly ever seen.

— Maureen Jack —

LIFE IS GRAND

When I was but a child,
They told me life was grand;
While strolling round the meadow,
Walking hand in hand.

School was what I needed;
They told me many times:
"Study good and study hard,
And you'll earn more than dimes!"

Soon I won a scholarship;
They told me: "very good."
But would I keep on studying?
Of course I said, I would.

I graduated with honours;
They told me they were proud;
Because I kept on studying;
I did what I had vowed.

I've survived the pressures,
And I've begun to live.
Happiness and love have come my way,
And I've begun to give.

Now I have a child,
And I tell him life is grand;
While strolling round the meadow,
Walking hand in hand.

BALLAD OF THE SPANISH MAINE

From a hidden cove on the coast of Spain
The massive ship set sail;
Despite the cold and mist and rain,
All these it could prevail.

The morning showed no signs of night
But of an endless sea;
The sails unfurled like birds in flight
The mates worked merrily.

Then from quarters down below
On deck the captain came,
His spy glass raised all set to go,
And then he heard his name

He looked up to the nest so high
A man's voice filled with zest,
"A ship I see I don't believe,
Its course is to the west."

The captain bellowed, "Turn the ship,
Her flag so we may see,
And bring to me my wine to sip
And toast our coming victory!"

Through angry voices the cannons roared;
Both ships hit fair and square,
But through the English water poured,
The English tempers flared.

Now the pirates watched the wreck
Go down into the deep —
The golden treasure displayed on deck
Was theirs to share and keep.

— Alena Slezziak —

MY FEELINGS

She makes me feel sad, unhappy and blue.
To tell you the truth, I don't know what to do.
One day she's mad, the next day she's not,
Sometimes I wonder how much friendship we've got.

Last summer she and I, I thought we'd always be Friends forever, till eternity.
I guess the change in time took place
Now our friendship has gone far into space.

I still really like here the way I did before.
That will never change.
Until she goes to college I'll have to try
To keep our friendship; even harder, more and more.

My feelings are being pounded upon day by day.
I never know what to find or what she'll say.
It hurts me a lot to see her mad,
I guess it's just a change that everyone has.

— Sandra Callan —

DESTRUCTION

The world's so dark;
There shines no light.
The world is desolate;
On this solemn night.

No one moves;
The world is bare.
No one breathes;
There's no one there.

The trees are fruitless;
The flowers dead.
I feel my stomach;
It's full of lead.

Everyone's sleeping;
Lying in red.
I look around;
Everyone's dead.

— Wendy Thoms —

Leaving my little girl thoughts
With my teddy bear on the shelf.
I go out into the world,
Thinking only of myself.

Just like the rest of the world
I must be hard and tough
Because going out in the world
Is really going to be rough.

I don't have a Dad to lean on
Or a Mom's shoulder for to lay my head,
Only a ragged teddy bear
That lays on the end of my bed.

No brothers or sisters to help me
For I am on my own
No one to go to visit
Or even call on the phone.

It's hard for me to live on
Knowing that I'm all alone,
No one waiting on the corner
And no one waiting at home.

I often wonder why I
Was left alone to survive
And I think about the times
When my family was alive.

It was terrible, that night they left
With sirens and lights flashing 'round
People asking me questions
Of how my family drown'd.

THINK

Some people keep their organization strong
While others join and just belong;
Some dig right in, some serve with pride,
Some go along just for the ride.
Some volunteer to do their share
While some lay back and just don't care;
On meeting dates some always show
While there are those who never go.
Some always pay their dues ahead
Some get behind for months instead;
Some do their best, some build, some make,
Some never give, but always take.
Some lag behind, some let things go,
Some never help their organization grow;
Some drag, some pull, some don't some do.

Consider
WHICH OF THESE ARE YOU?
