

THE BLUE AND WHITE

32
AL

First and foremost "WE DID IT". Presenting the '85-'86 Edition of the BLUE & WHITE. We asked you what you wanted, we hope this is what you had in mind. Actually this yearbook should be subtitled "THE YEAR IN PICTURES". A few new concepts were tried, and for the most part they worked. Each picture has a personally meaning, so we decided to leave it to your imagination to supply the captions under these pictures. We hope that we have captured the real essence of life at Walkersville Collegiate.

Now to the 'Thank-yous.' Mr. McLeod, this never would have been possible without your guidance and aid. We hope you realize that we appreciated it. To the W.C.I. staff and students, your support has not been forgotten. And to two very special people, Rajeev Mehta and Anna Wacyk, we can't thank you enough.

We, the editors, are proud of our production. We feel that you will be able to look back with as many fond memories of this year, as we will.

The entire yearbook staff would like to wish all Tartans, leaving or remaining at Walkersville, "Good Luck in the future!"

A FOND FAREWELL!

This school year marks the end of my teaching career which began some thirty-three years ago. It also marks the beginning of the very pleasurable prospect of designing my own time for more selfish purposes. I shall make no attempt to summarize or philosophize about a lifetime in these few sentences. Suffice it to say that I have been blessed with a satisfying and successful career in this vital profession. I shall always recommend teaching to those who are truly dedicated to young people, and to this task.

I have practiced in Richmond Hill, Lexington, and at Masses, Riverside and Hermon in Wisconsin. As I progressed from teacher to Department Head, to Vice-Principal and to the Principship, I was able to view education from varying perspectives. Each position has its unique rewards, and each year and school its own characteristics. The common thread throughout the years however has been the students.

If I had written my own script for my personal career I would have chosen to finish at Walkerville Collegiate Institute. I have been proud to be your Principal during these past six years. The Staff and students here have made these years the best. I thank you for your co-operation and the sense of community which has been developed at this school. I wish each and everyone of you the best that life has to offer. Be aware of, and remember that you are the architect of your own life and destiny. Despite negative circumstances and difficulties, and sometimes despite an overabundance of opportunity and material comforts, you must create the life which satisfies your particular aspirations. Pursue this goal!

I shall not say good-bye, because we will meet again in the community. I look forward to that, and should I come difficulty with a name - please help me! You will always remain part of my life.

VICE PRINCIPAL

This edition of the Blue and White has again successfully captured many fond memories of the 1985-86 school year. I wish to personally thank and acknowledge Mr. D. McLeod, the editors, and the Blue and White staff for selflessly contributing the countless hours necessary to make this yearbook a reality.

Walkerville has enjoyed many outstanding achievements in athletics, music and in academic proficiency over its sixty-four year history. In this edition, you should recognize, at least in part, many of the students, staff, volunteers and parents who have contributed to making this year another success.

To the graduates, I congratulate you on your past achievements and for your involvement in the many school activities over the past four or five years. May your future endeavours continue to bring honour to yourselves, to your family and to our Collegiate Institute.

Best Wishes,
W. M. Lozinski

LOOKING BACK

Looking back upon the years,
 That we have spent together.
 I ponder over memories -
 Those times that last forever.

But now we all must separate
 And go along our way.
 For the time has come that we must leave
 With nothing more to say.

We'll miss each other greatly though
 But time will heal the heart.
 And all the loneliness that comes
 When good friends have to part.

We'll keep in touch with everyone
 Just to show we care.
 And reminisce about the days
 That we were glad to share.

And when we're old and all alone
 We'll look into the past.
 We'll see the friendships that we had
 And know that they still last.

- BEV EDMONDSON

MY DREAM

I dream but one of many dreams
 And ya know, it's funny how simple it sometimes seemed
 I realize how this dream has grown
 Yet the future is still beyond and unknown.
 I wonder if I have the strength to make it grow
 But inside me I'm feeling I don't want to know.
 It's a scary feeling that's lurking among my sole,
 It's the thought of never getting there, that leaves me not as a whole.
 Is this but only a dream, an obsession, or vitality?
 When I wake up will my dream be reality?
 I question my thoughts as I push toward tomorrow
 The future is coming my thoughts I will then borrow
 I think about the future, when discussions are few
 When my dream has been accomplished I know there will be new.
 I guess I can compare myself to a dream,
 When the future has become the past
 Because as like old people, old dreams never last.

PARENTS

They love each other,
They say they care.
But when you go home
One isn't there

They talk things out
But it doesn't work.
And they'll never know
How much you hurt.

They both still love you
And they say they tried hard
But in a deck full of problems
You're just one card.

They still may love each other
Although they're not together
And one day in the future
You'll start to feel better.

- Alison

IN MEMORY

In memory of the seventy Walkerville Collegiate Institute students who valiantly sacrificed their lives during the war, the graduating class of 1945-46 paid homage to their brave alumni by dedicating a war memorial plaque in their memory to our school. This memorial plaque was displayed proudly in the front lobby and it was to serve as a perpetual reminder to the sacrifice for freedom that a past period demanded.

A number of years ago our plaque was vandalized and removed from its place of honour. Forty years have passed since the original plaque was presented and this year the graduating 1985-86 history classes have offered the newly restored war memorial as a parting gift to the present and future students of Walkerville Collegiate Institute. The plaque has now been returned to its rightful place of honour and dignity. This memorial is serving as our promise to remember our fallen comrades, and more importantly their names will serve as a testimonial to the spirit of peace.

THE BLUE AND WHITE

Three cheers to thee, beloved school,
Collegiate we so revere,
To all the world thy praise we'll tell,
Of thy virtues all will hear.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

In basketball, on soccer field,
Debating and all the rest;
In sports and academic work
You rank among the very best.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

Fond memories and thoughts of thee,
Shall e'er in our hearts abide.
Dear Walkerville thy name shall we
Cherish with abundant pride.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

CHORUS

Collegiate of our hearts, a song to thee we'll raise.
Our Alma Mater dear we'll shout afar thy praise
Colours of Blue and White, we'll keep thy standards high.
Collegiate of our hearts, we'll love thee till we die.

YEARBOOK

This year has been a great experience for me. I've learned about patience, dependability and friendship. I've had a lot of fun with the yearbook and I have many fond memories.

On to my personal 'thank-yous'. To Geoff Hays, my co-editor (and his Disco Don ideas), what an odd partnership, you and I. You know, I think it worked! To Mr. McLeod, your dedication can only be described as extraordinary. To Mom and Dad, I don't know how you put up with me this year. There is nothing more that I can say except "Thanks!". And to all my friends, and you know who you are, thanks for all your support and understanding. It means a great deal to me.

Much hard work has been put into this yearbook. I hope you will enjoy it now and in years to come. Have a great summer everyone!

CHRISTENA ALLEN
YEARBOOK EDITOR

P.S. I'm back to normal guys (at least until September!)

This is it, our first yearbook. Like it or lump it, but don't complain to me or Chris. I had fun working on this and that's because Chris did most of the real work (and I thank her for keeping me in line). Thanks to all the minute people who made this book possible. Thanks to Robyn Molyneau who worked hard to get lots of advertising for us. Even the great procrastinators, Jordynn and Sarah, were eventually helpful. I'd also like to thank my mom, "THANKS." A very special thanks to Mr. McLeod, who does so much for the yearbook. Each of you should personally thank him for all his work. I hope you all have a great summer.

GEOFF HAYS
YEARBOOK EDITOR

P.S. I hope this is corny enough to keep with tradition!

Doris! how are ya? Do I know you? Oh ya I've seen you at the Madrid before I really miss our bus fights. Love you and your family!

I cannot tell a lie. I decided to travel halfway across the city to come to Walkerville so that I could have an excuse to get up at 6 a.m. every morning. I was bound and determined to be part of the highly acclaimed music program here at W.C.I. Now look at me, up there with the big guys.

The past 4 years have not been easy ones, what with the seemingly endless turnover of teachers, and decline in enrollment. But, despite all the setbacks the music program and the SMA have bounced back, and are standing on their feet, ready to rebuild what we've lost.

It would be nice to regain that old standing, when one mentioned music (especially musical stage productions) one thought of Walkerville; but if we don't, I will still be proud to say that I had the chance to be a Walkerville musician. No matter how big we get, or how much money we can put in the bank, it wouldn't mean a thing without the wonderful people who are part of our program this year. Of course that includes Mr. Brown without whom we would probably be in a gutter. - Thanks So!

Well guys, it's been one terrific year, and here's to many more to come.

Just one more thing. If you ever forget your stand in life, just say those words we hear at every band practice:

"I am a Walkerville Musician." and don't forget it!
