The Forward Look

is a symbol of achievement... and a promise of great things to come

Today, throughout Chrysler of Canada's Forward Look family, you find advancements so modern that many are still only drawing-board dreams to other manufacturers. Many of these advancements, such as push-button automatic transmission, Full-Time power steering, and Total-Contact brakes are relatively recent, and, of course, readily associated with the youthful, progressive spirit of the Forward Look.

But, did you know that the first four-wheel hydraulic brakes . . . first high-compression engines . . . first adjustable front seats . . . first safety-rim wheels . . . and a score of other notable automotive "firsts" have also been associated with this Forward Look spirit over the past 30 years? And did you know that this same spirit has meant significant advances in truck engineering and industrial engineering as well?

There was no famous Forward Look name, or symbol for it, back in the earlier days of Chrysler of Canada's history. But the youthful spirit, the looking ahead, have always kept Chrysler in the forefront of progress. And we like to think that this same pioneering urge motivates all our young people as they move from the academic to the business world. For it is this that promises great accomplishments for all of us, whatever our chosen occupations, in the years that lie ahead.

You're always a step ahead in cars of the Forward Look

WINDSOR SCHOOLS EXCEL

OUR PRINCIPAL

B. W. BROWN

In the last five years almost 1500 boys and girls began their High School work in our Grade Nine classes. The pattern of past classes shows that every 100 pupils in Grade Nine will be reduced by 15 in Grade Ten, by 15 more the next year, and by 10 the year after. That is, about 60 are left to start Grade Twelve out of every 100 who entered Grade Nine. We are able to award Secondary School Graduation Diplomas (Junior Matriculation) to approximately 45 of these. Then we find that perhaps 30 or 35 return to take work in Grade Thirteen, and we give Honour Graduation Diplomas (Senior Matriculation) to about 25 of the original 100. So, perhaps 800 of our 1500 beginners leave without Grade Twelve graduation, and over 1100 without Grade Thirteen graduation. This measure of a school's achievement, by the way, shows that Walkerville C.I. ranks high among Ontario's schools.

Invariably those who leave early regret it in a few years, when it is too late. More and more, business and industry require at least High School standing for promotion to positions of responsibility. Those characteristics that make a boy or girl do well in a classroom — be it mathematics or science or Latin or any other class — will be noted and rewarded by an employer. The ability to do a good job in school, to work to the level of your ability, to get along with those around you, to undertake responsibility in the classroom and out, is recognized as an indication of probable success in a real life job.

This message, then, is directed to those who might think of leaving school; and the message is this, "The effort that you put into your school job, and your determination to stick to it, will win for you a very worthwhile reward."

NEW TEACHERS

Congratulations to Mr. Bishop, who has been promoted to Ontario School Inspector. Although he wasn't with us very long, Walkerville felt Mr. Bishop's influence as an excellent vice-principal and teacher, and now we give him our best wishes in his new appointment.

We are happy to welcome back to the W.C.I. staff, Mrs. Meredith, a former Walkerville teacher. We wish her continued success in the mathematics department with us.

Mr. Park comes to us from Wyoming, Ontario. He studied at the University of Western Ontario, before teaching public school at Sombra. He is now doing a fine job of teaching science and social studies at Walkerville.

Although a native of Windsor, Miss Barron attended school in Toronto and received her degree at U. of T. We wish her more success as an English teacher at this school.

Walkerville is very happy to welcome Mrs. Clouse to our teaching staff. Mrs. Clouse attended the University of Toronto and taught at Patterson Collegiate and at Fergus High School.

A graduate of the University of Toronto and previously a teacher at Trenton High School, Miss McEwan is adding very much to the spirit of Walkerville by means of her excellent instruction of music. Welcome Miss McEwan.

Walkerville would like to thank Mrs. Brown for her contribution to the art class and the art club. She is doing a fine job.

Mrs. O'Brien studied at Queen's University and taught six years at Picton Collegiate. She has been a supply teacher at Walkerville many times and we are now happy to have her on our regular staff.

Mrs. Lawson was born in St. Catharines, Ontario, and attended the University of Toronto. She taught at Walkerville for four years before she was married and we are happy to welcome her back as an English and social studies teacher.

After attending Mount Allison College, Sackville, N.B., Mr. Irvine taught at Rothesay College and was director of Commerce at Albert College, Belleville. He holds a degree of A.P.A. in accountancy and is doing a splendid job of teaching law, bookkeeping, and economics to the commercial classes.

As many of our fellow students will not be returning to the hallowed halls of W.C.L., it is the hope of this year's executive of the "Blue and White" that the '57 edition will come to be a lasting memorandum of your days at our Alma Mater, so that in years to come, as you reminisce through the pages of '57, cherished memories of your good times and trials will focus again in your mind.

This year, one new feature has been added to our year book. The "Patron's Page" has been added in order to decrease the rising cost of the production of the "Blue and White," which is increasing in size every year.

The executive wishes to thank the Advertising Organization for their splendid work in supplying the major part of the advertisements. Without their aid, the '57 edition would have been impossible. The executive also thanks the student body for their splendid co-operation concerning advertisements and contests, the typing department under the capable direction of Mr. Krause and Miss Hartman, and the judges of our contests.

I personally wish to extend thanks to my executive for their conscientious work in compiling the material for production. Also, I wish to thank Mr. Cecil Bunt who gave generously of his time and experience to the editors in order to make the Blue and White of '57 the best ever.

AGORA

After fervent campaigning by the students in September, the Agora held its organization meeting and elected its executive.

The students worked together on the basket drive and magazine drive to provide the Agora with ample funds to sponsor this year's activities.

There was a full programme of dances throughout the year: The Gambler's Gambol, in the new gym for the first time, with Music by Matti Holli; The Graduation Dance with Ken Brown; A Masquerade Dance; A square dance called by Mr. Bull; dances after games and Tea dances for which a record collection was begun.

Everyone had an opportunity to participate in the Activities Night in April with its swimming, jam session, ping-pong, basketball, and badminton.

The theme of the Agora Assembly was 'the Ed Sullivan Show', with vice-president Ed White taking the part of Ed Sullivan.

Mr. Waddell conducted the sale of Christmas cards in December.

We are particularly thankful to Mr. Klinck for his able assistance in beautifying the quadrangles.

The Agora will provide "Handbooks" to help next year's new students to become acquainted with our school and will present the 1957 Graduates with dated graduation pins with a chain. Our student council also purchased a new silver globe for our more formal dances.

Special thanks go to all the teachers and students who so willingly gave of their time to promote Agora Activities and to make each one a success.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

This is School Spirit!

What do we mean by School Spirit? We mean that special something which makes us root for the team, sing our school song fervently, and burst with pride at the mention of Walkerville Collegiate. For the Graduates it is expressed by the unfaltering devotion they have tried to show to their school throughout their five-year quest for knowledge. For the Undergraduates it is that spirit which provides an incentive for the attainment of their goals and which binds them and the school together.

In sports, School Spirit is not just a desire and a will to win, but the courage and ability to accept defeat gracefully.

Our teachers are the unifying link between the past and the future. They keep alive our traditions and guide us to newer horizons. They devote much of their own time to extra-curricular activities where students and teachers work together harmoniously, gathering a rich and varied experience in the process. It is in such areas that School Spirit grows. In the class-room too, in the achievements of our teams, in the Cadet Corps, in the Graduation Exercises, in dances, assemblies, class parties — in all these School Spirit is created and maintained.

The trophies, scholarships, and Honour Roll — all these are testimonies of those who have gone before us, and who have helped to create School Spirit.

They are evidence of the continuity of this traditional spirit — your heritage as a student of Walkerville Collegiate. It is your duty to carry on this school spirit and plant the seeds of it deep in those who in turn will follow in your footsteps.

THE BLUE AND WHITE

Three cheers to thee, beloved school,
Collegiate we so revere,
To all the world thy praise we'll tell,
Of thy virtues all will hear.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

In basketball, on soccer field,
Debating and all the rest;
In sports and academic work
You rank among the very best.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

Fond memories and thoughts of thee,
Shall e'er our hearts abide.
Dear Walkerville thy name shall we Cherish with abundant pride.
Dear Blue and White, dear White and Blue,
Our loyalty we pledge to you.

CHORUS

Collegiate of our hearts, a song to thee we'll raise.
Our Alma Mater dear we'll shout afar thy praise
Colours of Blue and White, we'll keep thy standards high.
Collegiate of our hearts, we'll love thee till we die.

Those of you who graduate this year, along with those who have preceded you in the attainment of this milestone, emerge into a world laden with opportunity and challenge. No two of you will be equally equipped for the "earning of a living"—but if you have earnestly tried to assimilate that which your school has endeavored to impart, you will all be equipped in equitable manner for that more important thing "the living of a life." Your teachers have been unstinting in their efforts to provide you with the "tools" for living. The success with which you use them is now in your hands. In the words of a popular song of the last decade "It's What You Do with What You've Got that Really Counts."

SHE STOOPS TO CONQUER

Under the able direction of Mr. S. H. Bull, the Dramatic Society, presented Oliver Goldsmith's famous play "She Stoops to Conquer" on the nights of February 21 & 22 in the school auditorium.

The cast included, in order of appearance, Mr. Hardcastle portrayed by Gary Lucier, Mrs. Hardcastle played by Jean Francom, Tony Lumpkin played by William Roddy, Kate Hardcastle portrayed by Leda Savchetz, Constance Neville played by Rosanne Pickford, Landlord of "The Three Pigeons"—David Wilson, Alehouse fellows and servants, Paul Lewis, Jack Machin and John Cruickshank, Marlow played by Paul Bawden, Hastings played by David Bib, Diggory—Raymond Buncie, Maid—Elaine Swartz and Sir Charles Marlow played by Bob Gieswein.

In "She Stoops To Conquer", young Marlow who has been sent down by his father to Mr. Hardcastle's country home, to court the latter's daughter Kate, is misdirected by Tony Lumpkin, Hardcastle's step-son, and arrives at his destination in the belief that the house is an inn. Mistaking his host for the landlord and the daughter for a barmaid, many difficulties arise. In the meantime, his companion Hastings carries on a love affair with Kate Hardcastle's cousin, Constance Neville, and attempts an elopement.

Many hours of hard work went into the production of this play. Special thanks are due to Mr. Bull for his very able direction, to Miss Robbins, the production manager, to Miss L. Piazza for her help with costumes, to Miss Barron for the sale of tickets, to Messrs. O'Brien and Beckley in the box-office, to Miss McEwan for her orchestra assistance, to Miss Haller for the loan of her time and for the use of the Home Economics Room, and to the Windsor Civic Players for their excellent work on the make-up.

The production staff under the direction of Miss Robbins also receives special thanks. Thanks to John Lindsey, stage manager and his assistants Mike Douglas, Dale Nichol and Roy Andrichuk, to Connie Mephram and her assistants Alex Soteris, Carol Stevens, Margaret Bolton, Derek Boughner and Annette Crawford to Irene Gyortfy, Frances Corbett and Pamela Roddy.

Many thanks also to our prompters Paddy Johnston and Gail Bardsley.

A party was held after the play at the home of Paul Bawden, and this year's awards were given to Bill Roddy and Leda Savchetz for their leading roles, and honourable mention was given to Gary Lucier.

Two one act plays were also presented by the Society this year under the direction of Miss Robbins. These were "Lady Catherine Calls", and "The Shot". In "Lady Catherine Calls", Lady Catherine was played by Connie Mephram, Elizabeth Bennet by Larisa Senchuk and Mrs. Bennet by Liisa Lappalainen. In "The Shot", Silvio was played by Alex Soteris, the Count by Ray Simpson, and the Countess Maria was played by Paddy Johnston.

Activities

The excellent assemblies this year have been the result of the combined efforts of Mary French, Stana Sukunda, Jamie Laird, John Lindsey and members of the Senior Assembly Committee; also assisted—Doug Lawson, Cathy Troup, Carol Ingalls, and members of the Junior Assembly Committee.

Our students had the opportunity of hearing Hon. Paul Martin speak of his recent trip to the Far East.

The Moral Re-Armament group presented a show for the students, which consisted of singing, instrumentals, and an outline on Moral Re-Armament.

Scenes from "She Stoops to Conquer" were presented in the Auditorium by the Dramatic Society. These students are to be congratulated for their fine performance.

The basketball teams were applauded for their fine showing this year during a Choir Assembly; at this Assembly the teams were introduced.

We are now looking forward to seeing the Agora Assembly which will be presented in March. Much credit is due to the committees and the participants who have made the assemblies a tremendous success in 1956-57.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The I.S.C.F. is a non-denominational group of students who gather once a week to hear speakers and missionaries, or to read the Bible. Under the leadership of John Kimmerly, our sponsor, our year has been very enjoyable. We had a weekend camp at Proud Lake Michigan in the fall and have had many parties with other schools also. These outings add greatly to our fellowship. The students of this world-wide organization learn to live better and to make God real in their lives.

Our meetings are held every Monday at 12:00 noon in room 203. Everyone is welcome to attend.

PURPOSE: "To Know Christ and To Make Him Known."

SEWING CLUB

The Sewing Club under the direction of Miss Haller, the Home Economics teacher, was formed late in the year. At the first meeting Paddy Johnston 13D was elected secretary.

The aim of the club is to attain perfection on the first try and thus to eliminate the time wasted in corrections.

Their meetings are held every Thursday in the Home Economics room. Miss Haller instructs by demonstrations, movies, and individual help.

This is just a new club and we hope it will continue in the coming years.

DEBATING CLUB

THE DEBATING CLUB

Every second Monday night, the members of the debating club and any interested visitors had a chance to express their opinions in formal debates followed by casual discussions.

The debating society is grateful for the capable leadership of Mr. Bull, and also the President Margaret Bolton, and the secretary Ray Simpson for his excellent work in publicity.

CHOIRS

This year we are happy to welcome a new leader, Miss McEwan. The boys' and girls' choirs have sung at assemblies and the graduation, and we have high hopes for them in the forthcoming Kiwanis Music Festival. Our thanks go to the choir members and Miss McEwan, and we wish her great success for the future.

THE CAMERA CLUB

This year, the Camera Club has been an active group in the school. Under the guidance of Mr. McLeod, meetings were held in his room, every second Tuesday. These weekly meetings gave the members an opportunity to develop and enlarge their own photographs. The executive this year consisted of John Lindsey, President; Derek Bougner, Secretary; and Phil Brown, Treasurer. Congratulations are extended to the executive and the remaining members for the outstanding work that was done this year.

A VISIT TO THE UNITED NATIONS

This year the grade 12 students chose Ray Buncic as delegate to the United Nations in New York.

"Among the most amazing sights I saw in New York were the United Nations buildings and the General Assembly in action, discussing the Israeli problem in the East. It was a thrilling experience to witness personally eighty nations working in harmony towards international peace and security. And most interesting, also, was the tour of the four marble and glass buildings of the United Nations. Certainly I did gain a great deal of enlightening knowledge, both of the technical structure and work of the U.N. and also of the vital part played by the United Nations in world affairs.

While in New York city we, that is, the seven other student representatives and I, visited the wondrous Empire State building, Radio City Music Hall, where we saw the famed "Rockettes", and St. Patrick's Cathedral, as well as Broadway, brilliant with colourful lights.

This trip will undoubtedly be a lasting memory on which I shall be able to ponder with a sigh in many years to come, and many are the thanks of appreciation which I give to the students of Walkerville and the Board of Education for sponsoring this experience."

THE RED CROSS

We, the Red Cross Club of W.C.I., have just recently started to progress in the art of making money. One Saturday before Christmas we entertained at the Homestead. We sold soft drinks at one of the recent dances. As members of the Windsor Inter-School Red Cross Organization we, with three other schools, will hold a tea March 16. At the end of the school year, we hope to be able to contribute a considerable sum of money to the Red Cross headquarters in Toronto.

CHESS CLUB

This year the Chess Club has again enjoyed a successful year. There has been a marked increase of new players, especially from Grade 9. A tournament is now in progress, which will continue until Easter. Meetings are held at noon on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays in Room 134, and new members are welcome. The president is Jon Levine, and the secretary-treasurer is Lorrin Gale. Some of the better players are Alan Douglas, Doug Gordon, George Marshall, and Bob Van Wagoner.

ART CLUB

This year the Art Club has sponsored many interesting programmes. Among them are the Ceramics Class, the Leatherwork Class, and a Weaving Class. David Pepper is the chairman of a group working on a mural based on "The Indians of South America," and an oil painting class will be held in the spring. An Art Club library has been set up with Elizabeth Masurat as librarian. Judy Boyd is the chairman of a textile painting group this year. These classes have proved very popular and it is likely that they will be continued next year.

Nancy Monks has done a very good job on our silk-screening programme. Some members of the Art Club went with Nancy to see an interesting silk-screening demonstration that straightened out many past difficulties.

The executive this year: Joy Stephenson, President; Allison Harvie, Treasurer; June Stephenson, Secretary; George Marshall, in charge of supplies.

All this would not have been possible without the expert help and guidance from Mrs. B. Brown.

LEATHERWORK CLASS

Instructors for the leatherwork class are six Art Club members who have previously taken lessons from Mr. Norman at his leatherwork shop. At the present we are tooling leather for wallets; later on, belts, key-cases, etc. and hand bags will be made.

Pamela Roddy is our capable chairman.

POTTERY CLASS

One of the popular programmes sponsored by the Art Club was the Pottery Class. Because it was a limited class, only those in the upper forms had a chance to join. Miss M. Money, of the Handicraft Guild, taught us how to make pinch-pots, coil work, and slab work every Wednesday night. The students were quite pleased with their efforts and many of them will continue in an advanced class. An exhibit was displayed in the Art Club show-case in the upper hall.

JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT

Betty Fairlie, David Boyd, Ann Iljanic, Don Robitaille, Maureen Norwood, Marg Finch, John Doherty.

These few, and many others, represent Walkerville in Junior Achievement, a growing project in Windsor. In Junior Achievement, boys and girls learn the fundamentals of business in a learn-by-doing programme by actually making and selling products of their own. It gives youth pre-business experience in ownership, management and working for something. It sends teen-agers into the business world with a clearer vision of what will confront them. Seventeen companies were formed with a total enrollment of 280 students from all local high schools, and we are looking forward to a higher representation from Walkerville next year.

THE GRADE 12 TRIP TO OTTAWA

Last year and again this year, a group of over 100 grade 12 students had an opportunity to visit the city of Ottawa and tour the Parliament Buildings. During this visit they also toured the National Museum, the Mint, and the National Art Gallery.

Friday morning, the students had the educational experience of watching the House of Commons in action and touring Parliament Hill. At noon they were the guests of Hon. Paul Martin, minister of national health and welfare, and Mr. Don Brown, M.P. for Essex West at lunch held at Dominion United Church. In the evening, the students of Lisgar Collegiate entertained them at a dance.

On Saturday many of the students went for a bus tour of Ottawa. During this tour they stopped at the Experimental Farm where there was a steep hill. Everyone took part in a thrilling toboggan ride.

The trip was a greatly educational and interesting experience and it is the students' hope that it will be continued again next year.

Special thanks must be expressed to Miss Falls for arranging the trip, and to Miss Tunks, Miss Robbins, Mr. Klinck, and Mr. Burr who accompanied the students.

Our Secretaries . . .

Who makes out your report cards? Who answers the telephone? Who makes out late slips and distributes the notices? Who types out work on short notice and helps in any emergencies? Who does all the office work? Who helped publish "The Blue and White"? Why Zilda and Irma, of course!

These two pleasing personalities graduated from W.C.I.'s Special Commercial course with honour standing to become the principal's staff of private secretaries.

The staff and students of Walkerville can't thank you enough, Zilda and Irma, for your ever-willing assistance.

A Father's Prayer (By General Douglas MacArthur)

Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory.

Build me a son whose wishbone will not be where his backbone should be; a son who will know Thee—and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.

Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under the challenge. Here let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail.

Build me a son whose goal will be clear, whose goal will be high; a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men; one who will learn to laugh, yet never forget how to weep; one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past.

And after all these things are his, add, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, the meekness of true strength.

Then, I, his father, will dare to whisper, "I have not lived in vain."

ART

Once again the Art contest proved a success. There were nearly one hundred entries, which gave the judges, Mrs. MacLeod, Miss Haller, and Mr. Waddell difficulty in choosing the winners.

FEEDING TIME

ADET

To the Instructors, Officers and Cadets of W.C.I.

To succeed in their chosen career is everyone's ambition in life. To achieve this goal we shall have to respect authority, stand our ground, and make important decisions quickly. We must neither falter nor hesitate. We must make the correct decision quickly — our success may depend on it.

All these "musts" are brought out and developed on the parade square. Our cadet drill develops quick-thinking, self-control, steadiness and co-ordination. These qualities mould together to form a strong foundation for later life.

In the officers' class, willing young men qualify themselves to give orders by first learning to take them. This is most important. I cannot emphasize it enough. Signalling, first-aid, marksmanship classes teach skills which are well worth achieving.

The fact that a cadet takes time to prepare his uniform, and wears it neatly, shows that he is proud to wear that uniform, and proud, also to be a part of the corps. This is called "esprit de corps" a characteristic for which Walkerville Collegiate Cadet Corps has long been admired. This swelling pride contributes greatly to the success of the parade. However, I do not feel that the success of the cadet program is heralded by an almost perfect inspection. Rather, it is reflected by the improvement of the deportment of each and every cadet throughout the year.

In closing, I wish only to extend to you my sincere thanks for your unselfish co-operation throughout the year.

CADET OFFICERS

The Walkerville Collegiate Cadet Corps is under the command of Lt. Col. Andy Boyd this year.

The 2 I/C this year is Major Bill Roddy.

The head of the Officers' Mess is Major Don Mott.

The Officers sponsored a dance earlier in the year that was very successful.

This year, as in other years, the Officers played a big role in the success of the Walkerville Collegiate Cadet Corps.

THE INSPECTION

The inspection for Walkerville Collegiate's Cadet Corps with Cadet Lt. Col. Jim Flett at the head, distinguished itself this year. The movements of the cadets were precise and well-timed. Major Kersey of the Essex and Kent Scottish Regiment took the salute on the march past and Captain Rankine, the officer in charge of cadet training, inspected the Corps. Cdt. Major Terry Whitehead won the best cadet award. "C" Company under the command of Cdt. Major Whitehead won the Best Company Award. The 2nd Platoon "A" Company under the command of Cdt. Lt. Donald Mott won the award for the Best Platoon. After the parade the men enjoyed a Coke supplied by the school.

FIRST AID

This year, as in years before, Mr. Wm. Young has done a fine job of handling the First Aid. The class this year was a little smaller than in previous years, but there is still a keen interest in First Aid in the Cadet Corps; in addition to the work that Mr. Young has done in Cadets First Aid, Mr. Allison has been teaching fundamental First Aid to all the Grade 9 boys during Health Classes.

The band strength remains at sixteen one-valve trumpet players and a drum section of thirteen. New marches have been added to the band's repertoire for the 1957 cadet corps inspection.

PIPE BAND

This year, the Pipe Band rose to its usual high standard.

Pipe Major J. Copland of the Essex and Kent Scottish gave much of his time teaching the new members and perfecting their skills playing the pipes.

The band was under the direction of Pipe Major John Cruickshank.

We expect that the band will carry on its good work in the 1957-58 school year.

RIFLE TEAM

This year was one of the best years for the riflemen of Walkerville Collegiate competitively. In the Ontario Rifle Association competition, Walkerville placed sixth with a team score of 95%. Our team placed eighteenth out of some 400 in the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association meet with a score of 95.72%. In the Royal Military College competition with a score of 94.9% Walkerville placed twenty-second out of 196. In the Province of Ontario meet, Walkerville ranked seventeenth with a team score of 94.8%.

Leon Lech won a special D.C.R.A. badge with a most creditable score of 98.5%. Leon also won the Lord Strathcona Badge, which goes to the best shot in the Walkerville Collegiate Cadet Corps, with a high score of 98.3%. Along with the Lord Strathcona Badge, Leon won the Agora Trophy for being the best shot.

The junior champion of the school was John Walker, who won the Major McLean Trophy.

Gary Lucier led the W.C.I. team in the Windsor Rifle Meet.

Roy Supra was chosen to represent W.C.I. in competition shooting in England last summer. We understand Roy had a good trip and did very well over there.

Leon Lech had yet another honour bestowed upon him when he was chosen to represent the W.C.I. at Camp Borden Rifle Coaching School.

This year a total of 56 individual recreational shooting badges were won by W.C.I. cadets. Members of this year's team are hopefully looking forward to an even better year in 56-57.

Walkerville girls are able to take part in a varied programme of interform sports. The schedules are planned and conducted by a group of girls known as the G.A.A. who are elected by the rest of the girls each fall. They also sponsor several social events including a Saturday night dance in December. Each year the members of the G.A.A. look forward to their annual fashion show with senior girls as models. This year the show was planned for the spring. Miss Shillington and Miss Mothersill coached the girls' school teams and also helped the G.A.A. to function smoothly.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Our team has had its trials and tribulations this year, but their true Walkerville spirit led them to two triumphs over Lowe Vocational and one over Kennedy.

The captain, Mary Lou Otto, earned this title, bestowed on her by her fellow team-mates. She is speedy on the plays and has the accuracy along with that speed to send the score flying. She is leaving us this year and there will be great difficulty filling her position.

Betty Fairlie (Forward)—This is Betty's last year on the team. She could be depended on to make the basketball net sing in many tight circumstances.

Stana Sukunda (Forward)—Although it was only Stana's second year on the team, her playing filled the spectators with spark, and encouraged her team-mates to fight harder.

Barbara Ramin (Forward)—Barbara excelled in "under the basket" shots and in the following years the team will lean even harder on her for support in tight spots.

Pat McBride (Forward)—A blonde bombshell exploded and shattered the rival's defence. Her atomic action and power in the next years will surpass this season's action.

Joan Wachna (Guard)—Joan has had a hard year, due to illness. While playing she was fast, cunning and always alert. She stopped numberless shots and to our misfortune, Joan will not return next year.

Joan Hulbert (Guard)—This year Joan was the team's tallest guard. She prevented her opposing forwards from shooting the ball and striking it home. If Joan continues to stretch upward she will reach unknown heights on the team next year.

Barbara Bruce (Guard)—Barbara took on the task of filling Joan Wachna's position. She was a brilliant player in "touch-and-go" spots and her speed was advantageous to the team. Barbara will be back again next year.

Mary French (Guard)—Mary may be small in size but she makes up for it in the height she bounced to recover the ball on the rebounds. She will return next year and may even conquer higher heights.

SENIOR GIRLS' W.S.S.A. VOLLEYBALL

This is the team which won the Senior Girls' W.S.S.A. Volleyball crown. This title has not been taken from Walkerville for the past five years.

The girls did not sail through the season as easily as previous teams had done. This year was the first year that every school played each other twice. Walkerville was faced with two defeats — one from Lowe Vocational and one from Kennedy Collegiate. However, the girls came back with added powers, and triumphantly took the championship.

Our coach, Miss Shillington, should be congratulated for the wonderful training that she gave to us.

On December 1, the team set out for London where they played 5 games and lost to London Central in the semi-finals by three points.

We would like to thank Marilyn Stewart, and Pat McBride who scored and timed our games respectively and also Gail Campbell who did a splendid job of refereeing our games.

JUNIOR GIRLS' W.S.S.A. VOLLEYBALL

The Junior girls did not have as much success as the year before, but they gave every school a hard struggle.

Every member of the team worked very hard and I'm sure that next year they can come out on top. Their coach, Miss Mothersill, played a highly important part in the successful games that the girls had and she should be given much credit.

A CURTAIN RISES

The night was a black mist of darkness. The moon in the vast emptiness illuminated faintly on the dark buildings below. The wide boulevard was hardly discernable in the lonely night. The street whispered silently. Silence was everywhere.

Sandor stood alone on the quiet street. He looked into the blackness of night. He turned. Slowly he walked down the boulevard, leading to Petofi Square. Sandor knew and loved the huge statue of Petofi which commanded the square — but he could not see it. A faint cool breeze caressed Sandor's face and he raised his head. The sombre clouds had split apart and one secluded star shone down on a tensed, quiet city. To Sandor, this occurrence was like a good omen. But the clouds promptly enveloped the star and night was dismal again.

Sandor retraced his steps for two long blocks; climbed slowly up the steps of the building which he had come to call 'home'. He lit a candle and its meagre light flickered hesitantly. He took a piece of paper from his pocket and read:

Rally: October 24, 9:00 o'clock, Petofi Square. Here, we, the students will demand freedom. God Help Us.

Sandor watched the paper burn. The miniature flames ravaged the frail paper. Eager, fiery arms touched and charred the printed words. Soon only charred remains were left. Dust unto dust.

Sandor spent a restless night. His world of dreams was filled with old and cherished thoughts. He dreamed of his home; he saw the rising mountains in the early dawn. He dreamed of the cool whiteness of winter, the freshness of spring, the warm lazy days of summer and the rust-gold promise of Autumn. He dreamed of a girl with auburn hair; he could see her dark brown mischievous eyes and hear her gay laughter, tinkling through the air. Care-free days were recalled and even a gurgling brook was remembered. Sandor saw the brook lengthen to a stream and followed its path over the pebbles. The soft, murmuring rush of water created a melody of nature, coming to a soft resounding chord as the waters rushed over the "petit" falls, shedding tears on the wet, barren rocks below. He followed the stream. Darkness came upon him. A faint rumble of sound intruded and shocked the silence. He heard a whispered word and heard himself challenge the broken silence.

Another whispered word followed, then subdued silence. Stealthy shadows moved further into darkness.

Sandor awoke with a startled cry. Hurriedly, he dressed. Casually, he walked down the street. He saw the familiar building, housing other students and he knocked three times on the door and waited. The door opened letting a streak of light into a dim room, Sandor looked at his fellow students. Their eyes were heavy with sleep but somehow the dark depths glowed with undying embers. One of them spoke.

"No one followed you?"

"No, I am positive," murmured Sandor. "Are we ready?"

"No", replied one. "We must wait!"

A calmness seemed to be present and Sandor felt relieved although his own heart was beating unsteadily. Each is thinking of his own problems thought Sandor. All emotions were deeply etched on the faces of the young men. Time was slipping away. Destiny was slipping by. Fate held her hand ready to strike — Freedom? or more oppression?

Sandor knew what oppression stood for and he was eager to know and cherish freedom — the word which had burst the bonds of silence and lived now in the hearts of many people.

"The time has come!" said the tall leader.

The young men stepped outside. As if by command, people came from buildings, basements, hidden crevices until the mass of people filled the wide boulevard.

Dismally the sun glowed in the mid-dawn and the misty air pressed against the faces of men, women and children. They marched to Petofi Square; made their demands; waited; the sun rose high in the sky. The alien soldiers waited; their guns ready to fire. The crowd grew impatient and moved close to the Communist headquarters. The crowd waited.

Then gun fire stilled the air. Sandor saw the bodies lying on the miserable ground. He heard the ominous rumble of tanks; he saw the black silhouettes of death against the red glow of setting sun. The crowd began to run. Again the spurt of gun fire filled the panic-stricken air. Sandor thought he could feel the shock of bullets

AN UNEXPECTED VISITOR

Have you ever wanted to hide when you met certain people? That's the feeling I get now whenever I see Mr. Beckett. It's not his fault, because he's really very nice. It's just that seeing him reminds me of a Sunday afternoon several weeks ago.

Mr. Beckett had dropped in to see Dad, and when mother had supper just about ready and still he showed no signs of leaving, she invited him to stay and eat with us.

We were having a typical Sunday evening supper of leftovers, which meant it was a small meal. Mother had never liked unexpected company, but she had made another salad and added more gravy to the creamed chicken. Unfortunately, though, this did not cause the chicken pieces in the gravy to expand. Then she served the dinner, and I saw myself, that there wasn't a drop left over.

We all enjoyed the dinner, especially Mr. Beckett, who has no one to cook for him. Everything went well until Dad turned to Mr. Beckett and said, "Well George, won't you have some more chicken? Another biscuit, maybe?"

Mother sat straight up in alarm. My spoon clattered to my plate, and my little sister glowered at Dad.

"Well, it certainly was delicious—" began Mr. Beckett.

Because I was closest to Dad I stretched out my foot under the table and gave him a kick in the ankle which I hoped would make him realize what he was doing.

"Ah, come now, surely you'd like—" Dad began, and I whacked him again with my foot.

Mr. Beckett looked over at mother, then at me, and then back to his plate. I took this opportunity to give my father another sharp nudge, hoping he wouldn't urge Mr. Beckett any more.

"Our dessert tonight is really good, isn't it mother?" I asked hopefully.

To our great relief Mr. Beckett declined politely, and little Kathy whisked his plate away before he could change his mind.

When Mr. Beckett finally went home we explained our predicament to Dad, and arranged for mother to offer seconds in the future.

I told Dad I was sorry to have kicked him, but that it was the only thing I could think of.

"Nobody was kicking me," Dad laughed, — and the next day I noticed Mr. Beckett's bruised ankle!

"That's a large grandfather clock you have in the hall."

"We call it a mother-in-law clock because it's been here forty years and won't go."

WALK HAND IN HAND

Marcia Richmond sat rigidly in a well-worn, yet, freshly varnished desk. One might think this was just another first school day in September, but, to this girl it was the day she had been dreading all summer. No, she was not a freshman — this she hoped would be her graduating year.

When Marcia's timetable was completed her eyes wandered around the dilapidated room, lighting on each bright shining face. Yet, these were different from the familiar faces at her old school on London Road — these were black.

What would the gang say now if they saw her. Marcia Richmond, in this building which should have been condemned years ago, surrounded by entirely negro students? This she supposed would be a very lonely last year, instead of a most exciting one, as she had hoped for. After all, a girl like herself could not be seen associating with a group of negroes. That girl in the second row, second seat had spoken to her once in the drug-store, but, she hadn't replied since she was one of them. Why had this happened to her?

When her father had taken ill and was confined to a sanitarium, the Richmonds had moved to their present home, close by her mother's work, also, on the outskirts of the coloured section.

Then her thoughts ended abruptly, as she heard her name being called from the front of the room. "Present," Marcia heard herself repeat automatically.

After a Stewart, Traft and an almost unpronounceable name beginning with w, the class was dismissed. Hurriedly she picked up her equipment and without pausing to look back, walked out the door, down the dimly lighted hall and out into the dazzling sunshine.

On the wide stone steps of the school she heard the name Marcia being called. Habit caused her to turn, and bounding down the stairs came the same girl in the second row, second seat. In her hand she clutched a brown wallet which Marcia identified as her own. The two girls strolled down the walk together into the bright new found world where white and brown walk hand in hand.

hitting bodies. People were shouting, falling and cursing. This was the beginning.

Sandor felt himself stumble against the broad base of the statue. He gazed at a suddenly flaming sky. He thought of freedom. He tasted the new word. Freedom. He felt like taking the precious word and caressing it with his hands. His heart rejoiced in one last effort and he shouted "Freedom — Peace." He bowed his head; his body crumpled lifelessly onto the paperstrewn street. His hand fell on the flag, soaked with his blood.

This was his freedom!

NOTRE CLASSES 12-A

Mademoiselle Robbins nous dit qu'elle serait
très heureuse

Si en Français notre classe était fameuse;
Monsieur Bull espère qu'il y aura une heure
Où nous pourrons lui dire un poème par coeur;
C'est le désir de Monsieur Hugill de nous enseigner

Pourquoi l'eau se détend quand elle est chauffée
Monsieur Burr espère qu'un beau matin
Nous ne ferons pas de fautes dans son sujet, le latin;

Dans la classe d'histoire nous apprendrons
Toutes les guerres qu'a faites Napoléon;
Et un jour Monsieur Lowden sera fier
Quand notre classe saura expliquer a, b et c;
Et le senor Waddell rêve au jour glorieux
Où de sa classe émergeront dix Espagnols heureux;

Et les étudiants qui restent ont la mémoire
De Monsieur Klinck et de chanter Wundebär.

THE STORM

The sun is lost behind the clouded sky;
I feel the cold bite of the whipping wind;
A flash of lightning brakes up over high;
The poplars twist and whine in useless din;
A crack of thunder's roaring rumble shakes
The black and frightened forest. The rain falls.

Take heed and hide; all God's creation quakes,
We must find shelter till the sunshine calls.
The sunlight bursts through weak and tired sky
To twinkle in a crystal droplet's eye.
Calm wind and limpid pools of placid blue
Last eve in flying flurry—was that you?
God's world found once again enjoying peace
Beneath the tranquil heavens powdered with fleece.

THE SEA

The Sea, the Sea, the deep blue Sea,
Oh! it's there that my heart will ever be,
When sunlight gleams and the waves dance high,
And the gulls are wheeling far up in the sky.
The Sea, the Sea, when the breakers rave,
When the foam gleams white on the crested wave,
Oh! I'd still be there on the glorious Sea
For a Sailor's life is broad and free.

THE SNAIL

Of all the fancy fish I raise —
Blacks, golds, and silver greys,
Little old snails is about the best;
He carries his house, and needs little rest.
Cupping his way along the glass,
In any race he would be last.
Slow as time, but just as sure;
He cleans, and cleans, and keeps things pure.

This is fascinating work! Yearbooks come from as far west as Calgary, Alberta and as far east as Glace Bay, Nova Scotia. Because of the climate and area many schools sponsor different activities such as Curling Clubs, Seed Fairs, School Gardens, 4-H Clubs, and Ploughing Matches.

Many of the yearbooks had individual write-ups for each football and basketball game played throughout the year. All of them had good literary sections and a few had a weekly or monthly school paper as well as their yearbook.

Here are my comments on the outstanding sections of some of the yearbooks we received.

THE ARGUS—Sault Ste. Marie Collegiate Institute, Sault Ste. Marie, Ontario.

One of the best sections of this outstanding yearbook contained reports from former students about the university they were attending.

AD ASTRA ANNUAL—Sarnia Collegiate Institute, Sarnia, Ontario.

The section on School Happenings Through the Years and the history through editorials was most interesting.

MARIAN TOWER—St. Mary's Academy, Windsor, Ontario.

What a lively school council campaign! Congratulations on the padded cover and the terrific pictures of your school throughout the book.

MAGNET—Jarvis Collegiate, Toronto, Ontario.

The student photography in this was excellent, as were the Art, Poetry, and Literary sections. The World Affairs Club sounds interesting.

THE TOWERS—W. D. Lowe Vocational School, Windsor, Ontario.

What a lovely Remembrance Day Service they have. The history of their school yearbook and the report from the first president of their student council were very interesting.

BLUE AND GOLD—East York Collegiate Institute, Toronto, Ontario.

Their student council is in the form of a Prime Minister and Cabinet including a Minister of Social Functions.

ANALECTA—Central Collegiate Institute, Calgary, Alberta.

This school chooses a girl and boy personality or athlete of the month. Congratulations on becoming parents! They adopted a little Greek boy.

THE RETROSPECT—Princess Elizabeth High School, Magog, Quebec.

They have a very good English and French Literary Section.

RED AND WHITE REVIEW—Petrolia District High School, Petrolia, Ontario.

The students hold mock assemblies during some of their United Nations Club meetings.

THE ARGUS—East Elgin District High School, St. Thomas, Ontario.

They have a Twerp Week where the girls must do favours for the boys in return for their signatures. The girl with the most signatures becomes Twerp Queen.

TECHALOGUE—Saskatoon Technical Collegiate Institute, Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

The photographs of paintings by the students is an excellent addition to this wonderful book.

THE BROWN AND GOLD ANNUAL—Morrison Glace Bay High School, Glace Bay, Nova Scotia.

They have an English and a French Literary Section. The baby pictures of some of the students must cause a lot of teasing.

KENCOLL—Kennedy Collegiate Institute, Windsor, Ontario.

They have an excellent Exchange section. The School Spirit Club sounds like an idea that we have need of.

THE ETOBIAN—Etobicoke Collegiate Institute, Etobicoke, Ontario.

Their Archery Club sounds like fun. The Gossip Section is certainly something different.

SPARTALOGUE—Forster Collegiate Institute, Windsor, Ontario.

We especially enjoyed the poem to the "Graduates '56".

We also received:

THE ORACLE—Woodstock Collegiate Institute, Woodstock, Ontario.

THE REFLEX—Ontario College of Optometry, Toronto, Ontario.

We were sorry we were unable to send to any of these schools, copies of our "BLUE AND WHITE". We enjoyed reading their magazines and extend to their staffs every success with their new editions.

Exchange Editor, 1957.

Social

This year's social whirl began on Tuesday, September 4, when the hallowed halls of W.C.I. were again flooded with eager students, tired after their long vacation and anxious to get back to the daily homework routine. Actually, though, it was a social occasion as it brought together again old classmates and old memories and the day was an exciting reunion.

Many dances were held during the fall term which passed quickly in a confusion of thrilling football, volleyball, parties and exams. The B.A.A. held a very successful dance early in the term, and the G.A.A., unwilling to be outdone, held an equally successful one several weeks later.

A Hallowe'en Dance held by the Agora proved to be a favourite also. Students in zany costumes danced in an atmosphere of pumpkins and goblins created by our Art Club. An example of one of the costumes was that of our Head Girl who arrived as a sweet old lady complete with shawl, nightcap and knitting.

On November 16th the annual Gamblers' Gambol was held in the new gymnasium. The evening certainly lived up to its reputation as the major social event of the term. Silver-dusted stars hanging high and low from the ceiling, and large dice, cards and silver dollars combined to create a true Gamblers' Gambol theme. A great many students and a large number of graduates were present and had a terrific time.

After months of making and checking arrangements, the day arrived for our annual commencement exercises. Graduates and undergraduates proudly received their certificates from equally pleased teachers. After the ceremony was completed, refreshments were served in the cafeteria by the members of our hard-working Agora. At the Graduation Dance which followed in the gymnasium, the grads caught up on all the news and were reunited with friends they hadn't seen for months. It was all this year's grade 13 could do to keep them from bursting out into college cheers and engineers' songs. Only the promise of a party after the dance kept them under control.

Christmas vacation then came and went, leaving us tired and happy in a new year — 1957. Back to school we came, and teachers, looking a little tired too, welcomed us with smiles and homework.

The Cadet Corps held a dance in January to relieve the situation a little. They did a good job and it was another success. The Blue and White and the Agora each helped us get back into the "swing of things" by having dances in February.

Our grade 12 and Commercial students were entertained at a dance at Lisgar Collegiate in Ottawa as part of their exciting week-end trip to our capital. It was a highly educational trip but definitely not lacking in "social pleasure."

Tea Dances were held during many noon hours throughout the year and although they started out as "painful", they developed into almost gay affairs through the efforts of the Dance Committee and the "determined" grade 13 girls.

In a moment of despair, caused by neglect, a group of "discouraged" grade 13 girls formed a sorority which they called "Alpha Oldmaida." Meetings were called whenever circumstances became desperate and the members thus consoled each other. I think the boys must have also formed a club as I heard they held meetings in a local pool hall. It must have been some sort of fraternity.

Two years ago, the Agora presented an Activities Night and the idea was such a terrific success that it has become an annual affair. This year it is to be held on April 5th and we trust it will be even more fun than ever.

The highlight of every year is the annual Military Ball, but last year it was even more spectacular than ever before. The Military Ball, April 27, 1956, was the first dance to be held in the new gymnasium. Cadet Lt. Col. Jim Flett and his lady, Mary Helen Small, led the impressive first Grand March followed by all the Officers and their ladies and the other couples. Happy faces and smiling eyes proved that everyone had had a perfect time.

But it is now 1957, and Walkerville Collegiate is again looking ahead to the formal excitement of another Military Ball. We know that it will be equally as wonderful as those gone by.

And thus another year in the history of our great school draws to a close. For many of us it is our final year — the end of our high school days, but no number of years to come can erase our memories — memories gathered for five years and now locked securely in our hearts. Thank you, Walkerville. We'll love thee 'till we die.

SWIMMING

The Walkerville girls' swimming team was very successful last year. The senior girls, under Miss Mothersill, finished in first place with Kennedy. Jane Burnie won the senior title, and Annette Crawford was runner-up for the junior title.

Our junior girls won the 80 yard relay and set a new record. The grade 10 relay was also record-breaking.

This year, Annette Crawford was winner of the inner-school meet and Betty Clouse was runner-up. Kathy MacDonald was junior champion and Ginny Crosley was runner-up. We are hoping for another successful year.

GIRL'S TRACK

The girls did exceptionally well in both W.S.S.A. and W.O.S.S.A. meets.

In the W.S.S.A. meet Joan Wachna won the Intermediate Girls' Individual Championship and Cathy Biggar was runner-up for the Junior Girls' Individual Championship. Joan also set a new record in "Running Broad Jump"—16 ft. 3 in.

Joan Wachna and Barbara Jackson tied for the W.C.I. Championship and Cathy Biggar was runner-up.

In the W.O.S.S.A. meet Joan Wachna and Mary French placed first and second respectively in the 75 yd. dash. The Relay Team, consisting of Joan Wachna, Mary French, Barbara Jackson, and Cathy Biggar, placed first in the Girls' 300 yd. relay which won the school another trophy for the collection.

VOLLEYBALL TRIP TO LONDON

The bus filled with both the girls' team and the boy's team left the school at 7:30 a.m., Dec. 1.

As the journey started all seemed confident and happy.

Before lunch the girls played two games defeating Wallaceburg and Brantford. After lunch they played the semi-final against London Central when the heart-breaking score appeared as 11-8.

They then played Leamington and then the last game against Owen Sound, and ended the tournament in second place.

The girls spent the rest of the afternoon watching the boys (as usual) gain their W.O.S.S.A. victory. (Congratulations Boys!)

A tired and disappointed team started for home, but the bus was just as noisy as going down. Most of them figured it was just a matter of a day's work and play. The Volleyball Season had now ended for 1956.

Best of luck to next year's Seniors and Miss Shillington.

BASEBALL

Under the direction of Betty Blyth, the 1956 Softball representative on the Girls' Athletic Association, a Round Robin Tournament was arranged so that all of the girls in the school would have an opportunity to play. Both a junior and senior league were set up with 16 teams of Grade 9 and 10 girls in the junior league and about 7 teams of Grades 11, 12, 13 and Commercial girls in the senior league.

We would like to thank the umpires who were very prompt to see that all of the games were completed, with few defaults.

After the regular tournament of which 10C and Grade 12 were Junior and Senior Champions, the play-offs were held. Both pitchers led their teams to a thrilling finish and Grade 12 gained the School Championship.

The following were the members of the junior and senior championship teams:

Mr. Allison continued to coach the basketball, track, and volleyball teams this year and turned in a fine job. Mr. Ford piloted the football and junior basketball teams and Mr. W. Under the capable coaching of Mr. Krause every Wednesday morning and Friday night, Walkerville competitors captured six trophies in the H.M.C.S. Hunter tournament in January. Sheila Burr and Doug Lawson won the 1st yr. mixed doubles; George Mooney and Bernie Bulat, the 1st yr. boys' doubles; Lorrin Gale and John Craig, the 2nd yr. boys' doubles.

In last year's W.S.S.A. tournament Walkerville captured four of the possible five championships.

Gary Gale won the boys' singles title, Mary Lou Otto took the girls' singles crown, Roy Supra and Eli Drakich won the boys' doubles championship and Barbara Jackson and Jim Montour copped the mixed doubles championship.

All students interested in badminton should avail themselves of the opportunity of playing on the school teams next year. You will really enjoy it.

SOCCER 1956 W.S.S.A. Champs

This year the Tartans went through their fourth season in the W.S.S.A. league without a defeat. After defeating Patterson 1-0 in the opener, they continued on their winning streak by beating Kennedy by one goal. Next, they played Tech and won a thriller 3-2. This game ended Larry Rizak's streak of eight straight shut-outs. In a rematch, Tartans overwhelmed Tech 4-0.

In the W.S.S.A. final, Tartans had their closest brush with defeat. They were one goal behind with just 20 seconds remaining to play, but Art Krentz banged in the tying goal, and in the overtime period Hugh Bickford potted the winner.

In London the Tartans took the first game easily. In the big one, a powerful Beal Tech team outshot the Tartans and squeezed through with a 1-0 win. Much credit is due to Mr. Young and the players. Members of the team were: L. Rizak (Goalie), M. Oreskovich (Captain), W. Young, R. Christie, H. Bickford, J. Szycha, R. Saasto, J. Saasto, A. Krentz, B. Bulat, J. Brownlee, B. Laird, J. Blyth, J. Garinger, J. Kelly, T. Young, J. Robich, T. Walsh, D. Robinson, R. Pierce, C. Schwartz, E. Hussey.

Mr. Burr—Dale, run up the blind.

Dale Shuttleworth—Let's see you do it first.

CROSS-COUNTRY (1956-1957)

W.O.S.S.A. Champs

As in past years, the cross-country team followed a rugged training program. Every day for almost two months, the team warmed up with a stiff series of exercises which lasted for a half an hour, and then sped three times around Willistead Park.

Ross Kirkpatrick, John Garinger, Jimmy Donaldson, Ron Wheeler and Andy Boyd were the five starters both at W.S.S.A. in Windsor and at W.O.S.S.A. in London. These boys unfortunately dropped a close decision to Kennedy at W.S.S.A.

The results were much brighter at W.O.S.S.A. The weather was very good and the 3-mile course inviting. Boyd broke the tape first in 14 minutes 18 seconds and was strongly backed up by Garinger, Kirkpatrick, Donaldson, and Wheeler.

This was Walkerville's fourth consecutive W.O.S.S.A. in Cross-Country. This impressive record is due to the tireless efforts of our wonderful coach, Mr. Allison. I'm sure the whole school joins the team when we say "Mr. Allison, you're the greatest."

FOOTBALL 1956

After three weeks of hard conditioning we blasted Kennedy in the Pigskin Preview 19-0. In the first game of the season we blanked Forster 34-0, but the following week we were tripped by Kennedy 19-6. We lost to Assumption next, 24-0, mainly because of injuries and suspensions. Our hard luck continued against Patterson and we were nipped 12-7. With our back to the wall, we rallied against Lowe Vocational and trounced them 19-0, to tie with Kennedy and Lowe for third place. We played Lowe to decide the fourth playoff spot and trounced them 27-6.

In the semi-finals, Patterson was our opponent and we nipped them 7-1. This was the first time Walkerville had reached the finals in ten years. However, Assumption showed too much power, and we went down to defeat 23-1.

Eli Drakich and Tom Stewardson made the first All-City team and Co-Captains John Matus and Bob Hanson, along with Andy Kizik, John Doherty and Dave McClelland, made the second team.

HOCKEY TEAM 1957

This year our hockey team slipped somewhat. We failed to make the playoffs for the first time in many years. We opened the season on the wrong foot, losing to Patterson 4-0 and Assumption 3-2 before chalking up our first win against Forster 7-1. We made it two in a row by nipping Kennedy 4-3 but then lost to Tech 4-1. In the second half of the season we lost two heart-breaking games with Assumption and Patterson by 3-2 scores. We squeezed by Forster 3-2, but lost to Tech and Kennedy, 8-2 and 5-2 respectively. Rookies spotted the lineup this year and should show great improvement next year. This year's captain was Mike Dufour, who led the team in scoring, and the co-captain was Ed Lumley. This is the last year Mr. Klinek will coach the team because he is retiring. He certainly deserves much credit in W.C.I. Other members of the team were: Dave Carter, Bill Seaman, Don Hager, Bob Christie, Mike Balo, Larry Rizak, Larry Burchell, Art Krentz, Metro Szeryk, Paul Might, Al Farrell, John Doherty, John Hatch, Bob Fairley, Jim Donaldson and Ray Saasto.

HOUSE LEAGUE HOCKEY

JUNIOR BOYS BASKETBALL

Our Junior Boys have not fared too well this season. After defeating Kennedy 26 to 22 in the opening game, they could not seem to break into the winning column, although it cannot be said that the Juniors didn't try.

Mr. Ford has been working with next year's squad and it looks very promising for a strong title threat.

The outstanding players this year have been Ken Pressello, Bob Biggar, David Elcombe, Mike Weeks, Bruce Laird and Ken Hull.

Marjorie: What has 8 legs, 4 eyes, red spots and blue all over?

Brenda: Ha, ha, I don't know.

Marjorie: Well, I don't know either but there's one crawling up your back.

SENIOR BOYS' BASKETBALL

Back Row: Gary Lucier, Mr. Allison.
Absent: W. Carter.

SENIOR BASKETBALL

For the first time in many years, Walkerville Tartans, under the steady coaching of Ian Allison romped to the city title undefeated in ten games.

The powerful team consisted of forwards Richard Rau and Dave McClelland, both terrific rebounders; centre, Bob Hanson, strong on offence and rebounding; guards, George Stewart, probably one of the best defensive players in the league, and captain Eugene Rizak, an All-City choice last year. The bench, probably the strongest in the league, consisted of Jimmy Stewart, a good defensive and offence player; Hugh Bickford, a long-shot artist; Ken Laframboise, a drive-in man; centres, Bill Carter, Al Rollo and Jack Blyth, hook-shot artists; John Garinger, Bill

Young, and Vern Harvey, all steady performers.

All the games were easy victories except the games against the stubborn Assumption quintet where the games were close; one was won in overtime and the other by a one-point margin.

Next year's squad will find many back. Only Bob Hanson and Eugene Rizak will be leaving the first string.

May next year's team be as successful as this year's.

The basketball team wishes to thank Mr. Allison for his splendid coaching and also all of the student body who have given their support so readily to probably one of the best teams that the school has ever had.

Back Row: Marv McCabe, Jim Smith, Dave Lowry, Bud Leonard, Mr. Ford, Doug Copeman, Glen Wheeler, John Craig, Gordie Stewart.
Front Row: Bob Biggar, Bruce Laird, Dave Elcombe, Mike Weeks, Ken Pressello.

"W.O.S.S.A. CHAMPS"

Middle Row: John Craig, Bill Roddy, Eugene Rizak, Chris Lay, Ray Buncic, Jim Smith.

THE VOLLEYBALL TEAM

Our volleyball team was extremely successful this year. Just to illustrate this, the team progressed through the whole season without even coming close to losing one game in the regular schedule, but unfortunately our streak of wins was broken in London by one of the other competing teams. Nevertheless we fought onward with never-ending stamina to cop the W.O.S.S.A. title. Fortunately, Dick Rau, an ex-soccer player, transferred to a softer life playing volleyball, leading the team to the top with his excellent spiking. Playing along side Dick were Eugene Rizak, Jimmy Stewart, Mike Mlacak, George Mooney and Ken Laframboise. Ready for replacement were Metro Szeryk, Ed Stofega, Dave Nichol, Bill Pogue, Jim Smith, Chris Lay, Bill Roddy, and John Craig. Lastly, we must not forget the excellent coaching of Mr. Ian Allison, helped along by Gary Lucier.

Jamie Laird, Ken O'Neil, George Mooney, (absent) Russel Rigelhof.

GOLF

Walkerville came within an eyelash of winning W.S.S.A. Golf this year being edged out by Kennedy. The top scorer was Ken O'Neil with George Mooney as runnerup. The members of the team were Ken O'Neil, George Mooney, Dave Lowry, Russel Rigelhoff, and Jamie Laird.

With more enthusiasm for the sport Walkerville can win it next year.

 Absent: Dexter Robinson, Charles Schwartz, Wayne Pohlman.

SWIMMING

Last year Walkerville boys' swimming teams were edged out by one point in each of the divisions. In the senior division John Doherty, however, had a first in 50 free style, second in 100 free style — George Stewart a first in back stroke and a third in diving — Jamie Laird a third in butterfly — Robert Vijuk, a second in breast stroke. Relay team is composed of John Doherty, Jamie Laird, George Stewart; David McClelland came in first. In the junior division John Neaves swam second in the crawl races, Bruce Laird second in the butterfly and diving, David Boyd third in the breast stroke, and John Saasto third in the back stroke. Relay team composed of John Neaves, John Saasto, Bruce Laird, Jerry Moyneur came in second.

This year with such performers as John Doherty, George Stewart, Robert Vijuk, Jamie Laird, Jerry Moyneur, John Neaves, Bruce Laird, David Boyd Walkerville's chances of winning the Championship are excellent.

 Absent: John Garinger, Jim Donaldson.

TRACK

Walkerville, as always, turned out a top-notch track team last spring. In the Windsor meet, they captured the senior, intermediate, and junior trophies and also won the annual Kennedy relays. The trophies were won largely due to the efforts of Bob Miller, Jim Montour, and Karl Moffat in the senior ranks, for they won nearly all the events between them. It was the same story in the intermediate and junior ranks. Richard Rau and Dave McClelland paved the way for the intermediates while Denis Agasse and Ken Pressello led the juniors to victory. At Kennedy, Jim Montour was the athlete chosen as the best competitor that night. A handful of Walkerville's thinclads went down to Hamilton to compete in the Hamilton relays, and easily walked off with every trophy they could get their hands on. In London, at the W.O.S.S.A. track meet, true to form, the senior and intermediate championships were taken. Also, Karl Moffat set a new record in the javelin throw of 171 feet. Jim Montour broke the high hurdles record, with a time of 15.1 seconds, and with the aid of sprinter Bob Miller, his teammates carried off the trophy. Richard Rau was the individual champion in the intermediate ranks.

But likes John better than the other.

Laurelee M. with her letters galore,

Says "You're lucky; your man is ashore."

While Jim B. likes the finer things in life,

He is not always sure his choice of girls is right.

Bill K. and Evelyn M. are satisfied I know,

But, Oh! Judy C. has a 117 miles to go.

While in our class we haven't a brain,

We do a swell job in driving Mr. Swanson insane.

Margaret F., Al R., and Jerry M. at sports are great

And Ken. P. thinks girls from Kennedy are real good bait.

Even though Tom A. is a friend to all,

In Sinky's class he's just a ball.

Willie R. likes a pretty dark-haired girl,

While the whole class is wondering who has Al

H. and George S. in a whirl.

Though Andy G. is a fine looking man,

He always has a few jokes on hand.

Nancy H. and Marge N. are sure of their guys,

Barbara West stopped giggling.

Mary-Helen Garneau knew what was going on in Physics.

Jackie Faubert didn't wear Bop-Boots and long socks.

Barbara Dragomer didn't talk about Dick.

Bev Schmidt—Digging diamonds in Central Africa.

Bob Wheeler—Operating a Lonely Hearts Club for female bachelors.

And Audrey R. to us is anything but shy

Although Bill Mizon's favorite saying is "what a fish"

He's going around with a real nice dish.

Pat Morgan is the only girl we know

Who plays the trumpet so - - - low - - - you can't hear her.

While French each day Gary B. detests.

No, wonder, poor guy, he fails all his tests.

Sharon G., Ann D., Ted A. and Joan McKee,

Sure make our class a nice place to be.

Keith H., Wayne N., Gordon B. are going to be bachelors.

Because we all know they'll never get to ask her.

Al F., Dave M., and Bruce Wale's girl friends names are very well concealed,

But knowing our class they will soon be revealed.

Let's talk of John Walker and John Darling for a while,

For a glimpse of their smiles, the girls would walk a mile.

Now that you know 11F has a ball,

Arlene Beneteau, will sign off saying, that's all.

THE direction in which education starts a man will determine his later life. It is an ornament in prosperity and a refuge in adversity.

" 'Tis education forms the common mind
Just as the twig is bent, the tree's inclined."

From contemplation one may become wise
But knowledge comes only from study
There is no royal road to learning
It can be acquired at little cost other than that of labour and application, but it pays continuous dividends throughout life. It is readily acquired in our early years. This is your opportunity, do not overlook it.

WHAT?

Thinking of a CAREER — or just a job?

Like most smart students, you'll want a lifetime career — not just a job at so much a week. And a career in banking could well be the answer to your plans for the future. Banking today offers a wider variety of interesting and better-paid positions than ever before. Consider it seriously before reaching your decision.

And here are some of the attractions Canada's First Bank offers young graduates starting in banking . . . good increases regularly if you are good at your job . . . an effective training programme to prepare you for advancement . . . promotion based on merit — not seniority . . . pension and group insurance benefits . . . a genuine combination of opportunity and security.

If you are interested in finding out more about banking as a career, have a chat with your nearest B of M manager. You'll find him most helpful.

 And time went by,
 The moon was yellow—
