LITERATURE

That's Life

From the world she hides,
Living in a place where nothing matters,
Alone she cries - then stops,
And wonders why.
A life is dying,
But society prohibits her feelings,
Be strong, be brave - hide all,
They say; you'll be just fine!
But where does destiny lead her?
Trying to fit the peices together
Only to find they're the wrong ones.
Take time to smell the flowers,
Another repeats; Life is so strong,
Yet we find so much fault;
Be happy, have fun but watch out
For the dark shadow in the background,
No one understands her,
They all put her up high
So when she falls, they only ridicule.
She is only human like everyone else.
Maybe that is the problem.
We've all forgotten how to live, love & forgive.

- Charmane Bernat

You and I.

What a strange pair
we make.
People must look at us and wonder why are we together.
But even you and I don't know the answer.
So different and yet
still alike.
You help.
You broke through my shell and showed me life.
You helped me to grow and understand that differences
don't matter.
You are my friend.
Always remember
me Lisa

- Alison Brown

Is This Love?

The sky is bright and so am I cause I feel so right with you by my side.

You tell me you love me
I say I love you.
but how do we really know if we do.

Young and without a clue to know if our love is really true we think that it is but we're still just kids.

Then the next day at school
I feel like such a fool cause you said you'd love me 'til the end and now I see you're with my best friend.

I'm feeling so confused
knowing that I'd been used he even took my best friend will my heart ever mend?

Then I'm dreaming in my class hoping this feeling will soon pass thinking he really loved me for so long then I realize, and that hurts, that I had been so wrong

So my friend take my advice and please remember to always think twice before you say you love please be sure for a broken heart has no cure.

- Melanie Myles

The Cheater's Poem

He'll say he loves you,
He'll say he cares
But what do you do
When you find there's not only you?

You say you'll leave him,
You say you hate him.
But when's the day
You'll finally forget him?

He'll say there's nobody,
That he only wants you,
He'll make you believe
That there's just him and you.

You want to believe
The things that he says,
But you're not too sure
He's not playing with your head!

He'll get real mad
and deny what he did,
And you can think what you want
If you don't believe him.

You'll sit and think about the things he said
But you know deep inside
It was more of his lies.

And then there's the day
You'll finally forgive,
But you know very well
It may happen again.

Life's

so complicated
Computerized this Instant that Everyone
expects perfection
But
can anyone give it?
Machines will soon replace everyone and the human race
will become obsolete.
Then
what will we do?

- Alison Brown

Attention Seekers: O.D.

Up and down, round and round
The cross upon your mind,
The horns just visible above your head,
You were just one of a kind.

Stalagmites and stalactites,
Look quickly before you rise,
Up to the clouds slowly,
In a purple haze.

Weightlessly you're drifting,
Watching the crowd below,
No one seems to hear you,
As you scream "hello!"

"But wait," you cry,
"It was just a mistake,"
But no one got to you in time,
And there's just no way to wake.

- Leigh Taylor

OUR MAIN MEN

Mr. R.W. Lanspeary, Principal

Mr. W. Lozinski, Vice-Principal

Greetings to all Walkerville students! On your behalf I congratulate your Yearbook Staff for a job well done. A special thanks goes to Janice Holmes and Marjorie Cameron, your editors, and Mr. McLeod who supervised this publication. As I am sure you will do, I intend to save the book for perusal in later years, and will join you in recalling some very pleasant moments.

To you students who are leaving us we say farewell and may fortune smile on you. Our doors and hearts are always open to alumni and we will miss you. On behalf of the staff, I wish you all good things in your future. Be proud of your Tartan tradition.

To all you who will be back next year - have a good summer holiday and we will look forward to seeing you in September.

R.W. Lanspeary.

Congratulations to the editors and staff of the 1983-84 Blue & White. Many precious memories of this past year have been captured through your efforts on our behalf. I would also like to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to Mr. McLeod, your staff sponsor, and to all those teachers and outside volunteers who have found the 'extra' time to give to our students and school.

I also wish to applaud all students who have taken the 'extra' time to study and to participate in the many activities of our school. Through your active participation, you have had an opportunity to demonstrate initiative, responsibility, and exercise your leadership skills. You have successfully upheld the Walkerville tradition of excellence in academic and extracurricular endeavors.

To our graduates, congratulations and thanks for your cooperation and involvement in our school. May your future endeavours continue to bring honour to yourselves, to your family and to our school.

THEY DO IT ALL FOR YOU . . .

Why do I have to do this? I can't think of anything to say, at least not anything worth putting into print.

Being president of the SMA was a real honour for me and hopefully we got something done. I like to think so. Band trips, concerts, a musical, fund raisers and more, are all part of our accomplishments and I'm proud of them.

I'd like to thank all members of the SMA for their laughter and support and to Miss Mably, whose dedication and patience has been deeply appreciated. But most of all, to the music students for without you there would be no need for a SMA. Your dedication is really super and I'm proud to be a part of it!

CLUBS AND ACTIVITIES

From the President's Desk . . .

Good times, bad times, you know I've had my share . . . Well its true but looking back you remember mostly the good times.

It's been some year! If you think about it, a group of people can do a lot if they pull together and work as a team. With the help of the SAA, SMA, the inner ezeutive and the agora things got done.

The inner ezeutive was quite a team when the guys weren't picking on the girls, when Wendy wasn't so spirited, when Margo was disarmed and the Byngs were tied down. But really, they were a great group of people. Cindy and Chris saved me from insanity many a time. Thanks girls. Thanks also to Sean for telling us much money we didn't have to spend.

Thanks goes to the Big guys, Mr. Lanspeary and Mr. Lozinski and the secretaries. A special thanks goes to Monsieur Bondy. I don't know how he made it through the year but he did. He gave his time, ideas, effort, and most of all, his patience. Thanks a lot, Sir.

You the students at WCI are great too! "They" say we don't have spirit at WCI. But if spirit is showing enthusiasm at pep rallies, cheering our team on to victory, saluting the Blue Moose, making fools of friends, leaving ICBM's on friends lawns, visiting a friend in the hospital or lobbing the Holy Mackerel, then we have it.

One last thanks to my friends. I don't think I could have survived 5 years without the memories I received from you guys. Good luck to ya.

Work hard at your books and play hard and in less than 5 years you'll cherish the memories from good old WCI. "Don't go with the flow, go with what you know!"

Love ya all, Wha!
Steve 'IGOR SR.' Hnidei
Agora President, 1983-84

. . and Now from the V.P.

Thanks WCI

Here I am in my fourth year of high school and I'm still not insane. Surprising eh?

It's been a fantastic year and we've gotten a lot accomplished but who's to say we can't do more next year?

Steve and I first met at a leadership conference last May and since then the ideas have been on a constant flow. We worked great together and I know we both enjoyed our year in office immensely. (Eh, Steve!)

I'd really like to thank Mr. Lanspeary and Mr. Lozinski. First for all fitting in all those events that the council planned and forgot to tell them about. Mr. Bondy, well just to say thanks - we couldn't have done it without you. As a matter of fact, I don't think we could have done anything. Thanks again.

Most of all I'd like to thank all my friends here at WCI, our home. Sure we have a lot of cliques but when you come right down to it, and egos are put aside, we're just a big family.

I'm sure anyone who has represented our school in any way, has been proud of it and all I can say is that I am one of those people. I'm proud to be a Tartan and also proud to represent all of you. Thanks again guys for a great year!

After 7 months, who-knows-how-many-hours, 2 dances, 4 or 5 missed deadlines, miscellaneous problems and 3 months of anticipation, the yearbook is FINALLY here!

It may take you a whole of 10 minutes to leaf through it, but for us, each page is a story of it's own. When you look through it, you will remember the good times and the fun. For us, we remember the hassle, work problems, etc . . . BUT, as long as you like it, we feel that it was worth it!

We've tried to capture the feeling of the year and the spirit that exists between the students here at W.C.I. We've also tried not to bore you with alot of meaningless copy and instead filled each possible corner with pictures (which say more than a thousand words themselves). When you look at it, really, What is a yearbook? Nothing more than memories captured in picture form.

And now we have to say our thank-you's:

First to Mr McLeod; you've been a good sport, by cracky! thanks for your time, patience and sarcasm. rest up over the summer, you'll need it for next year!

to Leslie Ayers; photography editor. thanks a heap! you did a great job. (it's always nice to have a shutter-happy person around!)

to Grant Nash; advertizing editor. What can we say, but thanks for all the help. it was really appreciated. and . . . last but not least, to all our friends and groupies (ha ha) Thanks for raiding our room, (324; if you haven't been there you're missing something good) and thanks for keeping us from getting things done! Seriously, you've been great! Thanks for the support!

Also we would like to thank our parents who have put up with this for the whole year.

Well, we've had our say. Have an excellent summer and if you're leaving this year, have an excellent life . . .

Love, Marjorie Cameron &
 Janice Holmes

5 years ago the idea of a "Walkerville Paper first emerged. Since that time "The Blue Print" has seen many articles, and new faces. But suddenly rumors started and the grapevines were buzzing: "There is not going to be a paper this year."

What? and destroy a tradition - boy, did we ever pull the wool over their eyes! The Blue Print came back alive and kicking!!

Amidst the letra set, glue and layout sheets a paper was born. During the bouts of total confusion, decisions and deadlines the Blue Print evolved. We kept working and delivered to you this years effort. Your support has made it worthwhile and we thank you. We changed and rearranged until we felt The Blue Print was something you'd like.

We worked together and well, you be the judge. Did we survive? Are we proud? You bet!
