Getting Personal With The Extras

QA

This year, there seems to be a lot of pressure to be "cool". I feel like it's impossible for me to be in the "in crowd". Can you help me become cool?
-Anonymous

No, I cannot help you become cool. There shouldn't be pressure for you to be popular. People should like you for who you are. You don't need to change yourself, they need to change. You'll eventually find the people that think you're cool when you act like yourself.

cuckoo for

Cuckoo's Nest

I thought you was a snake!

"One flew east, one flew west, one flew over the Cuckoo's Nest!"

"What can you pay for the way a man lives? What can you pay for what a man is?"

One Singular

Director's Note:
When I first sat down and decided to stage "A Chorus Line", I believed it had the potential to be an incredible display of our talent here in the program. This is the musical that has the ability to show off our singing, dancing and acting talents all at the same time.

In my five years with WCCA I have never had a group blessed with as much individual talent as this cast possesses. The difficult part of this journey was making these individuals become a group. I believe this process was a learning experience for the entire cast and an experience they will take with them when they move on to their next endeavor. I thank all of these students for their dedication and leadership and for creating an amazing show.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. Paul Goyeau for his tireless effort with the orchestra. He has fallen into the WCCA trap and has given up his home, family and personal life. His role has continued to grow in the WCCA program and I look forward to sharing many years working with the absolute best "Music Man" in this city!

I would also like to thank our amazing dance instructor Ms. Janice Brode for her creative vision and endless patience with a director who never has "definite instructions".

Step, pivot, turn, close, kick, touch...again!

Sensation...

This show would never have been the same without her!
I hope you all enjoyed WCCA's production of, "A Chorus Line".

Sears Festival

Walkerville was very successful in the Ontario Sears Drama Festival this year. The area competition took place in our very own auditorium, further cementing our status as the leading Arts school in Windsor. We submitted three different plays this year, some written by Walkerville students, and others written by Canadian playwrights. We won several awards such as:

writing, performing, male best actor award and female best actor award. The play Therac 25 (directed by Jane Dunlop) won one of the three "Outstanding Performance" awards and moved on to regionals. The tech crew for the production (led by Ross McArthur) received the "Stage Managers Award of Merit". Brett Ashley also won the award for "Excellence in Acting". It was a great year for the school and we know we can do even better next year.

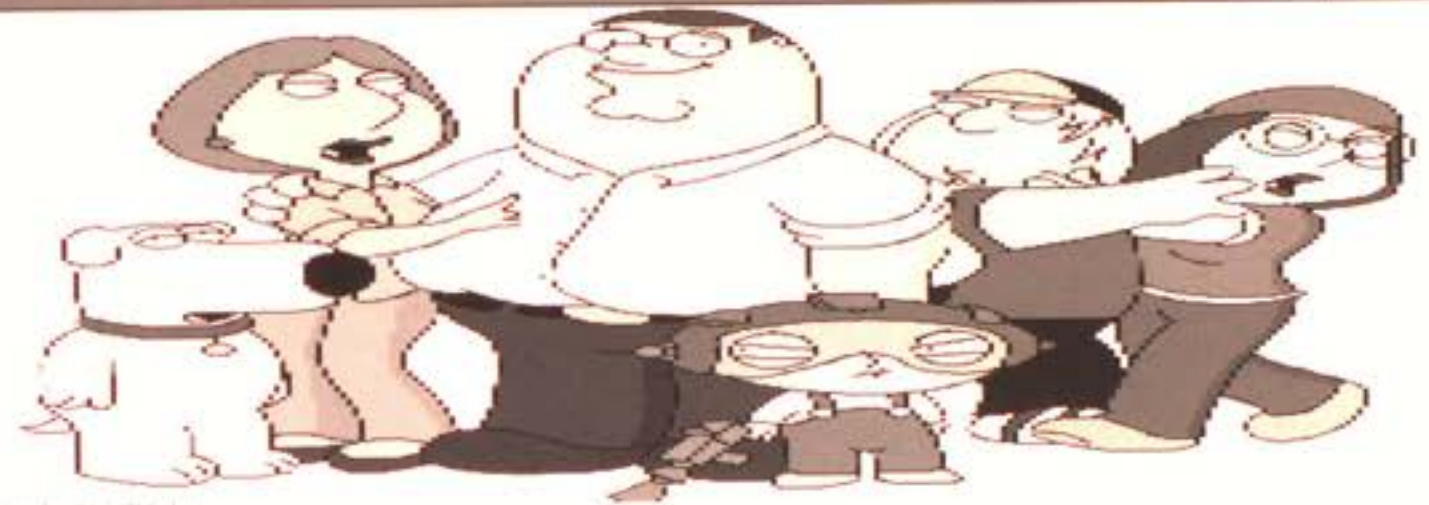

Travelers Club

New to Walkerville this year was the Travellers club, founded by students, presided over by Alyssa Elliott. Alyssa puts the "c" in club...without her, it would be lub. We owe a great deal of thanks to her and Mrs. Gale, the teacher supervisor. Maybe one day we'll all be able to actually go on one of the trips we planned.

Student gora Council

Wow...The past four years have gone by so fast. The first day of grade nine seems like yesterday, yet so much has changed. Walkerville isn't just a school, it's home. As sad as it is to leave I couldn't be more excited. To the Agora kids: We have set the new standard for Agora, and made a path for next years council to be even better. We're leaving to bigger and better things and I will never ever forget you. You've all been great friends to me and are so talented! There is no doubt in my mind that each of you will be extremely successful. To my grade elevens: I'm so proud of you, and know that you guys are going to be amazing. Next year is going to rock, but remember everything happens for a reason. Go with the flow, be flexible and follow what Mrs. Ireland and Mr. Booth recommend. It will save you a lot of time, and don't forget to call me if you need anything! To my grade tens: start thinking about what you want to be and where you want to go. Your last years will sneak up on you. To my little grade nine's: you guys are my favourite. You've paid your dues and this is where things start getting good. You are going to love the next three years. To Mrs. Ireland and Mr. Booth: I am forever grateful for everything you've done for me! We really couldn't have done anything this year without the support of some of the best teachers at Walkerville. Also I'd like to thank all the teachers who supported me throughout these years and gave me the tools to succeed in everything I do. An enormous thank you goes out to my best friends (you know who you are). I seriously couldn't have gotten through the last four years without you guys. You're like sisters to me. I love you all Walkerville!! Have a great summer!

The Yearbook Staff

Yearbook Editors

Hello,
This has been a long, hard struggle. We went from three students and a teacher, to a whole committee. We laughed, we cried and talked of bodily functions. We learned a lot, whether it be that some celebrities are too inappropriate to be put in the yearbook, or just that life is amazing when you take the time to appreciate the simple things. We all learned that to find yourself, first you must lose your innocence. We have all grown in our own ways, both physically, mentally, and socially. From this experience we truly have become better people. We triumphed over the bad and celebrated the good, we looked fear straight into the eye, and we laughed. When it comes to the ritual of growing up, sometimes you smile because your happy. Other times you smile just because you've survived, but hey a smiles a smile. We all realized that with Playstations, Internets, TVs and video games, a person can go their whole lives without listening to their soul. We know we're all dorks, but life truly is an amazing journey to take, and we are happy that we were able to share it with all of you.
-Alyssa Elliott, Brett Ashley, and Ross McArthur

A special thanks goes out to the following people,
Mrs. Gale - for putting up with us
Mrs. Elliott - for always feeding us
Devon Gale - for helping Alyssa with her pages and the biggest thanks to Peter Ha - for being such a hard worker
