"Apprenticeships Up Close and In Person" Field Trip
 A group of forty Tartans travelled to the Unemployed Help Centre on Lauzon Road, The Community Kitchen and St. Clair College where they explored a number of different programs. They were also the first student group to tour the new fitness facility on campus. Lastly, students travelled to Lasalle to learn about the Homebuilders' Program.

GOOD FRIENDS ARE HARD TO FIND, AND IMPOSSIBLE TO FORGET.

WCCA

In September of 1989, a wonderful arts program was established at Walkerville Collegiate Institute called the Windsor Centre for the Creative Arts. Over the years, the name changed to WALKERVILLE Centre for the Creative Arts and several changes in staff occurred but throughout the last 25 years, the students and staff of WCCA continued to produce top quality in both the performing and fine arts in and around Windsor and Essex County, the province, the country and even across the ocean to Europe, Greece and Great Britain.

In June, we celebrated the retirements of two of our staff - Mrs. Peters (piano) and Mrs. Maynard (vocal). Both gave many dedicated years to the students of WCCA and leave with many great memories.

A Note From Your Yearbook Editor

Walkerville, yet another year has passed for us Tartans. We can definitely say that it was just as successful as the year before. We flooded the auditorium to watch the fantastic production of In The Heights (the name "Usnavi" will never be forgotten), battled through Tartanious Maximus, and witnessed our principal becoming a Canadian citizen. Looking back on this school year many vivid events comes to mind. I sincerely wish for the next school year to unfold as unpredictably as this one did.

Being a part of yearbook is thrilling. I felt sad to part with the camera I've become quite fond of over the last ten months. Through the lens of the camera, I was able to see the things that cover every aspect of our school; dedication, willingness, support, the creativity, and our talent. I've seen what can make or break a team, and witnessed the victories that we hope to accomplish in our lifetime; hitting that one note, scoring the game point, creating the one piece of artwork that brightens up a hallway, getting up on that stage and winning the vote. The list goes on forever.

The yearbook team works hard to capture every moment we can, from sports games to clubs to performances. Though we can't always attend everything, we do try our best - which is why this year we asked many of you, "what would you want in the yearbook," in order to create what you now hold in your hands.

I want to thank those who helped make yearbook possible. Despite being a very small team - we created memories for everyone to look back upon. Special thanks go out to photographers Rebecca Champagne and Victoria Carznota, In addition thank-you Lucy Sun for advising me, Daytona Hawkins for risking detention and Zoey Anderson for letting me drag you around to each event, as well as those people who sent in photos.

In the end, Walkerville, we may not be immortal, but hopefully our yearbook will keep our memories alive. Thank you for a great year.
